PREFACE

For many years of my busy life I have at odd times indulged in my hobby of searching for ancestors. I find that there is a growing interest among many to know who and what their forebears were. For this reason I have been led to compile and publish the family data I have collected in order that it will be available to others long after I am gone. I have written a simple story of a plain, good people who for political and religious reasons chose to come to a far wilderness to make their home so that they and their descendants might enjoy a measure of freedom unknown in the lands from whence they came. These courageous and adventurous souls deserve to be remembered by those of us who enjoy the rich heritage they left us. In undertaking this work I hope to contribute in a small way to the preservation of the memory of these pioneers.

I am deeply indebted to my maternal grandmother, Mrs. Alice Virginia Chapman Gordon, for much of the information contained in these pages. She knew the old families of this area well and enjoyed talking of them. She possessed a rich store of family tales to which I listened during my childhood. I am indebted to the many Chapman and Pugh descendants who shared their family records with me without which I could not have written the manuscript. I am mindful of the fact that all branches of the Pugh and Chapman families are not completed in this work but it would have been an impossible task to locate and record all of the descendants. I believe that any descendant not recorded can easily trace his lineage from the information I have included. It is my hope that this book will be cherished and preserved by those into whose hands it falls in order that future generations will be able to gain from its pages some insight into their roots.

ERRATA AND ADDENDA

Since publishing the Chapman-Pugh Genealogy in 1963 I have secured additional information and documents which I wish to include in the history of these families and their allied lines. There are some corrections which I wish to make. These additions and corrections are set forth as follows:.

CHAPMAN FAMILY

Page 10, Line 9: The name "Black Dutch" designated a political party among the Dutch. The Chapman name, according to tradition, was originally Kaufman.

Page 14, Line 10: The oldest Chapman Bible is now owned by Dr. Jesse Pugh Chapman, Jr., 276 Kenilworth Rd., Ashville, N. C.

Page 15: The records of South Carolina prove that Joshua Martin was the father of Elizabeth Martin who married Elijah Chapman. According to tradition, Celia Martin's maiden name was Posey.

Joshua Martin's will was filed in Edgefield, S. C. on Nov. 6, 1827. The will mentions the following heirs in addition to his wife: son, John, Lucy Mathews, daughter Elizabeth Chapman, daughter Cealey Corly, son David, son Samuel, daughter Nancy Smith Martin (probably a widowed daughter-in-law). Joshua Martin was a large land and slave owner. He served in the Revolution from Union District, S. C. in the State Militia, with Brandon's Regiment.

Page 23, Line 37: Zack Chapman married Vernon Bumpers instead of Elizabeth.

Page 27, Line 1: Correction: "Two children Alice Lee (instead of Marie), and Sidney."

Page 30 III D2: Ada Ellen Allen was born March 13, 1866 instead of 1886.

PUGH FAMILY

Pages 55, 56, 57: Additional documents and data from West Chester, Chester County, Pennsylvania on James Pugh, his brother David Pugh, and James' son, Thomas Pugh; references to David Price, father of James Pugh's wife; references to the Regulator Movement in North Carolina in which the Pugh family were involved at the start of the Revolution as follows:

Will of James Pugh filed in Chester County, Pennsylvania (Excerpt): James Pugh, Uchlan, Oct. 7, 1723 - Aug. 25, 1724-A.161: "To son Hugh, the plantation on which I now live; to son John, 200 acres of land upon French Creek; to son Thomas 200 acres of rough land adjacent to son John's and next to Simon Meredith; to son James 6 pounds; to daughters Joan and Sibble 10 pounds each. The will provides money toward enlarging Uwchlan Meeting House. Rem. to children, viz.: Hugh, John, Thomas, Joan, and Sibble. Exrs.: Sons Hugh and John Pugh. Assistants: Friends: David Pugh and David Price. Witnesses: Richard Thomas and Samuel John.

Notes found in West Chester, Pa. made by genealogist, Matilda Evans, long ago, who searched the Quaker records and public records in Pennsylvania for data on James Pugh and his descendants as follows:

"David Pugh and his brother James Pugh arrived in 1682. David Pugh was joined by his wife whose name is not now known. James Pugh, a single man, was indentured to John Bevin for his passage money as was then a common practice. Tracts of land were allotted to these in Merion Township, but were early exchanged for larger tracts in Radnor Township. This Radnor land was located, and part of it remains in the family at the present time."

"The date of the death of David Pugh's wife is not known. In 1698, he was liberated to marry Catherine Price by Radnor Monthly Meeting (Quaker). The same Monthly Meeting at its session approved the marriage of James Pugh and Joan Price, sister of Catherine. (See Hilles Genealogy for Price History.)"

"The children of David Pugh as named in his will proved 14 Oct. 1738, recorded in Philadelphia, Will Book F, p. 73: Jonathan married Hannah Miles; John married Abigail Morgan; Thomas; Hannah, married James Miles; Samuel; Joseph married Rebecca Moore; David; Mary."

"The children of James Pugh and Joan Price as recorded by Radnor Meeting and their names appearing in James Pugh's will were:

1. Hugh, who married Mary Jones, 1733.
2. John, who married Mary Jenkins, 1730
3. James, Jr., who married Jemima _____,1724.
4. Thomas, who married Elizabeth (also a Pugh by tradition), 1729.
5. Joan, who married Wm. Williams, 1723.
6. Sibilla, who married John Edwards, 1731.

James Pugh removed from Radnor to Uwchlan in 1714. He lived for a time at "The Plow" in what is Robeson Township, Berks County, now, but died at his home on French Creek. His will was proved Aug. 25, 1724, and recorded at West Chester, Will Book 1, p. 161."

"1. Hugh Pugh (son of James): Will proved Jan. 6. 1748/9. recorded West Chester Will Book 3, p. 98. His wife seems to have preceded him in death, and his father's home plantation to have passed into other hands for he provides his eldest son, Enos Pugh, to be put with cousin, John Pugh, of Radnor - Eldest daughter, Dinah Pugh, married Simon Meredith in 1755; son, Hugh Pugh, "having but one hand, to be schooled." He later became a school master in Radnor; Youngest daughter, Rebecca, to be put with Margaret Lewis, wife of Nathan Lewis of Newbern. She later married David Hilles and went to Redstone."

"2. John Pugh and Mary Jenkins were married in Goshen Meeting, 1730. He sold his Uwchlan property and removed to Coventry. His children were: John, married Hannah Meredith, 1763; Jonathan, who married Naomi Evans, 1759 (later married Sarah Bateman, widow); Mary, married Elihu Evans, 1763; Anna, married John Roberts, later John Lewis."

"3. James Pugh, Jr. married Jemima (not a Quaker). They continued to reside in Uwchlan. His will was proved Oct. 21, 1769; his wife's Dec. 3, 1772, naming one son, David, and the following daughters: Mary, married Thomas Dalrymple; Margaret, married James McCray; Jemima, married Patrick McCarty; Anna married David Jenkins; and Kezia. Will Book 5, p. 159,366."

"4. Thomas Pugh, (son of the immigrant, James Pugh, from whom Clarke County, Alabama, Pugh family descended), married out of meeting, Elizabeth (said to have been a Pugh). He was paying tax in Uantweal (?) and Uwchlan from 1730 to 1747. Soon after this latter date Thomas removed to North Carolina, being received by certificate at Cane Creek Meeting, 1756. His children were Jesse, Enoch, Mary, Jonn, (perhaps a Thomas, Jr., and possibly Hannah, although they might have been grandchildren). Jesse removed to Wrightsboro, Georgia (according to membership in Quaker Meeting). Mary became the wife of Herman Husband who precipitated the War of the Regulators of Alamance County, N. C." (End of quote from notes of Matilda Evans).

Page 56: In reference to James Pugh of the Regulator movement in what is now Randolph County, N. C., Wheelers History of North Carolina states that the Regulators were formed in April, 1768, which was an organization for regulating public grievances and abuse of power in regard to the British who ruled the colonies. Herman Husband was the head of this movement. He lived at Sandy Creek, now Randolph County, N. C. Husband was an extensive landowner, originally from Pennsylvania, a Quaker related to Benjamin Franklin.

The Regulator movement was the beginning of the Revolution. There was a battle May 16, 1771 between the Regulators and the forces of the British Governor, Tryon. This was the Battle of Alamance. The Regulators were captured and sentenced to death, but Herman Husband escaped and went to Pittsburg, Pa. Sketches of North Carolina by Foote, p. 64, regarding the Regulators, states that James Pugh was an ingenious gunsmith. At the Battle of Alamance he killed with his rifle some fifteen of the British forces. James Pugh was taken prisoner and sentenced to hang along with the other captured Regulators. When placed at the gallows he asked for permission to address the people for one-half hour. In his speech, he justified the course he had taken against British rule. At the conclusion of his speech, he stated that he was ready to meet God. He stated: "The blood that we have shed will be as good seed sown in a good ground, which soon will reap a hundredfold." Note: It appears that most, if not all, of Thomas Pugh's descendants, there in North Carolina were involved in the movement which precipitated the War of the Revolution. The Regulator, James, is believed to have been a son of Thomas.

Page 56: In reference to David Price, father of Joan Price who married James Pugh, the immigrant from Wales, the following is found in Compendium of American Genealogy, Virkus, Vol. 4, p. 272: "David Price, a Friend from Brecknoeshire, Wales, to Radnor Meeting, Pa. 1690, with wife and 6 children: married in Wales ca 1665 Joan Awbrey (ca 1640-1699), daughter of Thomas Awbrey, a descendant of a Welsh family of high antiquity. Their daughter, Joan, married 1692 James Pugh (died 1724) from Wales, settled in the Welsh Tract, member of the Society of Friends; moved from Radnor to Chester Meeting, 1714, settled in Uwchlan, acquired a large landed property."

Page 58, Line 37: Further Reference to the Service of Jesse Pugh in the American Revolution: Bounty Surveys, Georgia Roster of the Revolution by Knight, p. 211: Grant to Jesse Pugh, 287½ acres in Washington County, Georgia, Lot 738, warrant 2468 (Land given for services in the Revolution). Other Pughs listed as soldiers in the Revolution in Georgia are: Jehu, and Elijah (sons of Jesse), John, Thomas, James, Shadrack, Francis. Taken from page 92, "Gone to Georgia" by Wm. C. Stewart: In 1820, in Georgia, John Pugh was in Jackson County; Martin and Wm. Pugh were in Hall County; Robt. Pugh was in Burke County (not the Robt. Pugh who came to Clarke County, Alabama in 1812): Abel Pugh, Hancock County; Catherine Pugh, Putnam County; in 1827, Sampson County; John, Martin, and James Pugh in Hall County; Shadrack Pugh, Revolutionary soldier in Upson County.

Page 59, second paragraph: Death date of Ruth Julian Pugh is 1848 on her tombstone, but in the Bible record of Elijah and Mary Johnston Pugh (see page 145) Ruth Julian Pugh's death date is listed as March 13, 1852. Ruth Pugh is listed in the 1850 census in the household of Giles and Axey Chapman.

According to a story handed down in the Pugh family, Ruth Julian was a heroine of the Revolution. When she was in her early teens she was used as a messenger for the Revolutionary troops. On one mission, she was stopped by the British forces. Before they could take possession of the paper she was carrying, Ruth hastily threw it into a camp fire where it was promptly destroyed.

Page 60: Regarding Elijah Pugh (1760-1824) Revolutionary soldier: Upon settling in Clarke County, Ala., in 1811-1812, Elijah Pugh served as Justice of the Quorum in the courts of Clarke County. In Territorial Papers of the United States, Vol. 18, compiled by Clarence Edwin Carter, regarding Alabama Territory, is found a letter Elijah Pugh wrote Governor Bibb from Clarke County, Alabama Territory, on June 15, 1818 resigning his office due to "a variety of considerations", and recommending Lewis Sanders be appointed to this office. It is my understanding that the duties of the Justice of the Quorum were to preside over the court in the absence of the Judge.

Page 66, last paragraph: Virginia Dickinson Pugh was born Sept. 11, 1847.

Page 71, IE 6: Condie Pugh has a son Stephen in addition to those named.

Page 77, IF 10a (Second paragraph, James Edward instead of Edward, Jr. (Child of Myra Gene Kennedy)

Page 78: Regarding Rezin Pugh. An item found in the Clarke County Journal of Aug. 2, 1866 states that Rezin Pugh, Sr., "died within the last two weeks." This would put his death in July, 1866. His estate was settled in 1872.

Page 79: An additional child of Elijah Pugh, son of Rezin Pugh, is Margaret (1862-1898) who married Wm. Nathaniel Rivers. Elijah's son David (Lee) Pugh, II G4, married 1871 to Sarah W. Crumpton or Compton. Their children were (1) G. Ernest Pugh (1873-1900), (2) Jeff Pugh, (3) Mary E. Pugh (1875-1928), second wife of Wm. Nathaniel Rivers (4) Clara Ella Pugh (1892-1928) married C. D. Brassell, (5) Annie Pugh, married Jesse Horton, (6) Wm. David Pugh (1884-1932) married Mattie Everline Rivers, (1892-1964).
Add Grace Pugh to the list of children of Vernon Pugh II G 5a.

Page 80: Alexander Pugh (IID) was married to Nancy Skinner.

Page 81: IID3, name should be Jane instead of James.

GORDON AND POGUE

Page 114: Dr. N. C. Gordon had sisters: Mrs. Susan Anna Mobley and Mrs. Sarah Knight, in addition to those named.

Page 115: Addition: Elizabeth Bostick, wife of David Pogue, was the daughter of James and Mary Bostick of South Carolina, who lived for a time in North Carolina, coming to Mississippi Territory, now Alabama, in 1814. Among their other children, were Amanda who married a Scranton, and who died June 19, 1894, aged 79; a son, Sion Bostick, living in San Saba, Texas in 1894. (Taken from obituary of Elizabeth Pogue, Clarke County Democrat, Grove Hill, Alabama, Sept. 8, 1894.)

Page 117: PICKENS FAMILY information (Family of Margaret Pickens who married James Baskin): Reference: Pickens Families of the South by E. M. Sharp: Margaret Pickens, born 1745, married James Baskin, by tradition in several branches of the Pickens family, was a daughter of William Pickens Jr. by his first wife (name unknown). His second wife was Mrs. Ann (Oliver) Scott whom he married in Augusta County, Va. Wm. Pickens is believed to have been the son of William and Margaret (Pike) Pickens who came from Ireland to Bucks County, Pa. by 1719, and grandson of Robert and Jean Bonneau Pickens of France and Ireland.

Information from Gen. Andrew Pickens and his descendants is that the Pickens family emigrated from France after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. It is claimed that Robert Picon, a Scotchman or Briton at the court of France was a Protestant who fled from Scotland in 1661 to avoid persecution of Charles II. In France, he married Madam Jean Bonneau, also a Protestant. When all priviledges to Protestants were revoked, Robert and family fled France for Scotland and thence to North Ireland where they had more religious freedom. The Pickens family were French Huguenots who refused to live under Roman Catholic rule.

In the records of the Dutch Reformed Church, Bensalem, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, we find in 1719 William Pickens and his wife joining by certificate. They were listed as new church members from Ireland.

The Pickens family left Pennsylvania and are found in Augusta County, Va. by 1740. John Pickens, son of Wm. Sr. imported himself there with his wife and children along with Wm. Baskin on July 24, 1740.

Wm. Pickens (Jr.)'s will is filed in Montgomery County, Va., Nov. 19, 1783. There is evidence that he came to Augusta County, Va. as a widower with children, later marring to Mrs. Ann Scott. There were many intermarriages between Pickens and Baskin families. Both families are found in Pennsylvania, Augusta County, Va. and Abbeville, S. C.

James Baskin and Margaret Pickens were married in Augusta County, Va. They died in Abbeville District, S. C. It is stated that: "Tradition in several branches of the Baskin family indicate that Margaret Pickens was the daughter of a Wm. Pickens who came from Ireland by 1720 to Newcastle, Delaware, to Paxton Township, Lancaster County, Pa. then to Augusta County, Va."

The following information on the Pickens family, was received from Mrs. Hickman Riley, 4825 Montgomery, Downers Grove, Illinois:

The immigrant to America, William Pickens, born 1670, whose wife was Margaret born 1672, had the following children;

Israel Pickens born 1693
Margaret Pickens born 1695
Robert Pickens born 1697
Andrew Pickens born 1699
*William Pickens, Jr. born 1705
John Pickens born 1710
Gabriel Pickens born 1715

*William Pickens, Jr., born 1705, married (1) Elizabeth Kerr, ca 1735; married (2) Ann Oliver Scott, widow of Samuel Scott, and daughter of Aaron Oliver.

William Pickens, Jr. and wife, Elizabeth Kerr had the following children: Thomas Pickens born 1736, married Sarah ca 1757; *Margaret Pickens born 1739, married James Baskin in 1765.

William Pickens, Jr. and his second wife, Mrs. Ann Oliver Scott had two children: Benjamin Pickens and John Pickens who married Letitia Hanna.

TALBERT

Page 130, additional data on Talbert Family. Correction: Where shown as John Holloway Talbert, change to John Halliday Talbert. A book on some Talbert lines has been published by Eugene Talbert Aldridge, 368 S Gordon Way, Los Altos, Calif., 94022. There is very little reference to John Halliday Talbert. According to this book, the Talberts are found in Spotsylvania County, Va. Talberts, Suttons, and Hallidays are all found in Virginia in the same vicinity. A John Talbert bought land in Spotsylvania County in 1737 from Amey Sutton. Joseph Talbert purchased land there in 1767. There is a tradition that Joseph lived in Maryland before buying land in Virginia. A Thomas Talbert bought land in 1676 in Old Rappohannock County, Va.

In 1772, Joseph Talbert and wife Sarah, John Talbert and wife, Margaret, sold their lands and moved to Caswell and Orange Counties, N. C. Caswell County was formed from Orange County in 1777. A Joseph Talbert's will is recorded in Edgefield County, S. C., proved March, 1794. Mentions wife, Sarah, daughters: Mary Cason, Elizabeth Miles, Nancy Ware, Sarah Ware, Peggy Gennings, Phebe Stephens, Agnes, Fanny: sons: John, Jeremiah, Ansel, granddaughter Permelia Talbert. Will Book A, p. 56. The John mentioned in this will is not John Halliday Talbert. He was likely the son of John Talbert.

In 1790 Census, there was a John Talbert in Guilford County, N. C., which adjoins Caswell, and a Joseph Talbert in Caswell County, N. C. At this same time there was a John Talbert and others of this name in Abbeville, S. C.

Roster of Soldiers from N. C. in the American Revolutionary War shows a John Talbert, p. 150. Archives, Raleigh, N. C., Revolutionary accounts, show J. Talbert, John Talbert, Joseph Talbert, Thomas Talbert, M. Talbert, W. Talbert, Wm. Talbert, Isaac Talbert, Matthew Talbert and S. Talbert.

Nov. 9, 1792 a Joseph Talbert bought land in Edgefield.

CHAPMAN FAMILY HISTORY

PART I - CHAPMAN FAMILY HISTORY

CHAPTER I

THE COLONISTS

GILES CHAPMAN, SR.

The name Chapman is said to be of Saxon origin, from ceapman, a chapman, a merchant, seller of small wares.

The documented history of the Chapman family of Clarke County, Alabama has its beginning in Bridlington, East Riding of Yorkshire, England. There Giles Chapman, Sr., born January 4, 1702, was married in 1728 to Sarah Jackson who was born February 27, 1710. Sarah Jackson was the daughter of Marmaduke Jackson, born September 14, 1678, and his wife, Elizabeth Anderson, born April 3, 1673, and "was buryed ye 15th of ye 4th month 1733." Marmaduke Jackson and Elizabeth Anderson were married February 14, 1707, in Bridlington. Marmaduke Jackson, son of Nathaniole Jackson, died April 22, 1735. He and his wife, Elizabeth Anderson, seemed to have had only two children, Sarah who married Giles Chapman, Sr and a son, Nathaniole, born December 20, 1708, and died on the "13th day of the eleventh month" 1718. Elizabeth Anderson was the daughter of Thomas Anderson of Bridlington. He died May 5, 1683.

In 1735 Giles Chapman, Sr. and his wife, Sarah Jackson, and supposedly their first child, Elizabeth, moved from Yorkshire, England to Frederick County, Virginia. Quoting from page 22 of "Hopewell Friends History" 1734-1934, Frederick County, Virginia, all of which is taken from the official records in the State Land Office in Richmond, Book 16, pages 315-415 regarding the patents issued to the settlers who came to the Shenandoah Valley with Alexander Ross and Morgan Bryan, all bearing date of November 12, 1735 and state that the grantee is one of the 70 families brought in by them: "Among these families was Giles Chapman and his wife, Sarah. Giles Chapman 400 acres joining John Littler and beginning near the head of Yorkshireman's Branch." On June 3, 1744 Giles Chapman and Sarah, his wife, sold 250 acres to James Cromley. On August 31, 1744, Giles Chapman sold 150 acres of land to Ulrich Ruble. Page 357 of the Quaker Encyclopedia, Vol. H, by Wm. Wade Hinshaw, Giles Chapman is named as one of the Founding Fathers of Hopewell Monthly Meeting of Quakers, Frederick County, Virginia.

Giles Chapman, Sr. and his family left Virginia. One descendant who has traced the family states that for a time they lived in Orange County North Carolina, going about 1760-62 to settle near Newberry, South Carolina. "Annals of Newberry," begun in 1850 by John Belton O'Neall and later finished by John A. Chapman and published in Newberry in 1892 gives considerable information about the Chapman family. O'Neal lists the Chapman and Summers families among families who were originally German and who lived in the Dutch Fork section of Newberry District. He explained that these families due to religious oppression and invasion by enemy had fled to England and later emigrated to the American colonies. Most of them, it appears, took the English counterpart of their names. My maternal grandmother, Alice Virginia Chapman Gordon, to whom I owe much of my knowledge of family history, told me that it was family tradition that the Chapmans were Black Dutch. According to "Annals of Newberry," Giles Chapman, Sr. and his wife are believed to be buried in the Chapman graveyard two miles east of Newberry. Sarah, his wife, administered the estate of Giles Chapman on December 18, 1789. According to historian, John A. Chapman, Palmetto Branch is named as the place where Giles and Sarah Chapman first lived. Page 25, "S.C. History and Genealogy, Newberry County" by Summers gives the site of the first home as left of the road leading east to Crotwell's old place and Matthews' Fish Pond near a branch of Cannon's Creek.

Giles Chapman, Sr. and his wife, Sarah Jackson, had the following children:

Elizabeth Chapman born January 28, 1734
Samuel Chapman born August 7, 1735
Rachael Chapman born Sept. 1737
Joseph Chapman born June 14, 1740
Sarah Chapman born December 18, 1742
William Chapman born May 11, 1746
Giles Chapman, Jr., born June 21, 1748, married Mary Summers

George L. Summers in his book "Newberry County, S.C. Historical and Genealogical" gives the following information about Samuel, William, and Joseph, sons of Giles Chapman, Sr.

"Samuel Chapman died June 1, 1790 leaving a widow, Nancy. He married twice, having married second time February 9, 1775. Children by his first wife were: Giles (died 1792), William (died 179_), Samuel, Rachael B., Alsia, and Sally. Children of the second wife were: Marmaduke, Archibald, Polly (married Joshua Griffith), Nancy (wife of Thomas McConnell), Robert (died without issue), Joseph, Elijah, and Jane. . . . Samuel, the father, received a grant of land in 1772 from King George III of England for 100 acres on Cannon Creek."

"William Chapman, brother of Samuel, died about 1790, and left three daughters. Viz: Mary (wife of John West Grissom), Lydia (wife of John Douglas) and Delila. (She was living in Pendleton District in 1797)."

"Joseph Chapman died about 1818, left widow Penelope, and children: William, Samuel, Sarah. They were children by a former marriage.

William Chapman, son of Joseph died about 1824, and left children: Jacob, David, Polly (wife of George McCollough), Amos, Elizabeth (wife of Elijah Lunch), Moses, Elijah, William, Joseph, and Giles. Samuel, son of Joseph, died about 1820 and left several children, some of whom were: John, Elizabeth, Joshua, and Mary."

GILES CHAPMAN, JR.

Giles Chapman, Jr., later known as the Rev. Giles Chapman, son of Giles Chapman, Sr., and his wife, Sarah Jackson, was born June 21, 1748 in Virginia and died April 15, 1819 in Newberry, South Carolina. He was married to Mary Summers on September 14, 1775. Mary Summers was born October 10, 1758 and died in Newberry October 15, 1813. She was the daughter of the Rev. Joseph Summers, a Quaker minister who came from Maryland to Ninety-Six District, South Carolina about 1760 and settled on Bush River. (See section of this manuscript on Summers family.)

Giles Chapman, Jr. and his wife, Mary Summers, had the following children:

Joseph born September 23, 1776, married Martha Elmore.
Elijah born January 19, 1779, married Elizabeth Martin.
Elener born March 21, 1782.
Elizabeth born February 13, 1784, died February 22, 1839, married Thomas A. Elmore.
Nancy born February 19, 1786, married first a Pitts, married second a Mills.
Giles born February 23, 1791, died September 1, 1831, did not marry.
William born March 2, 1793.
Daniel born March 26, 1795.
Samuel born June 14, 1797, died August 6, 1876, married Elizabeth Worthington.
Lewis born March 11, 1800, died April 13, 1860, married Rhoda O'Neall.
John born January 7, 1788.

Giles Chapman, Jr. became a Universalist minister of note. Quoting from "Annals of Newberry," pages 65-66 by John Belton O'Neall: "My venerable friend, Giles Chapman, the great preacher of what was called Universalism, until within the last twenty years certainly always preached the Dunker (baptism by immersion) faith. For I see they deny the eternity of future punishment and such unquestionably was always his teaching. He, like his father-in-law, Joseph Summer, wore his beard. Giles Chapman was a native of Virginia; he was born in 1748; his father on immigrating to this State first located himself for a season at the place of our town. Giles Chapman was a saddler by trade. He married a daughter of Joseph Summers. From my earliest recollection 1799 or 1800 he lived at the place where his worthy son, Samuel Chapman, Esq., now lives, and there he lived until his death in 1819. He began to preach in 1782. Often have I heard his discourses.

He was beyond all doubt an eloquent and gifted preacher. . . . He was rather above ordinary size, grey hair and beard, not very long but worn, his dress very much that of Friends (Quakers), a face of the most placid and benevolent expression. He married more persons than any other clergyman. He never would have more than $1 for his services. As a husband, father, master, neighbor, and friend, none was ever more justly beloved than Uncle Giles as he was familiarly called."

Quoting from the aforementioned book of George L. Summers, page 207: "When the English first settled the Southern section of South Carolina, around Charleston there were Chapmans who came over from England and helped build the State in that section. Later some of these moved into the interior. While the name is primarily English, there were two different families that settled in the Dutch Fork before the Revolution."

"One Giles Chapman came from Bridlington, England, though of Welsh (?) descent, about the year 1725 (records show 1735), with his wife Sarah Jackson, and settled in Virginia. They had six children in Virginia, Viz: Elizabeth, Samuel, Rachael, Joseph, Sarah, Giles. The family moved to the Province of South Carolina and located near the village of Newberry. The son, Giles, became a minister and preached the Dunker faith (this sect originated in Germany and at one time was called Tunker, meaning "Dippers" - they baptised by having the person kneel and then dipped his head under the water). The Dunkers never shaved their beard nor cut their hair. He preached around Newberry for several years the church being located near his home about three miles east of Newberry. Afterwards the Tunkers were combined with the Universalists and he became a Universalist preacher. During the American Revolution he served as a Chaplain in Company of Captain William Frederick Houseal and regiment of Colonel Philemon Waters. Reverend Giles Chapman married Mary Summers, daughter of Reverend Joseph Summers, a Universalist preacher who moved to Newberry from Maryland and settled on Bush River. They had the following children: Joseph, Elijah, Elizabeth who married an Elmore, Nancy who married a Mills, William, Giles, John, David B. (error should be Daniel), Samuel, and Lewis. Lewis married Rhoda O'Neall and had one son, Rev. James K. P. Chapman, who moved to Appleton City, Mo."

Further reference to the Revolutionary service of Giles Chapman, Jr. or Reverend Giles is found in A. S. Salley's Stub Entries, Vol. X, page 24. Also Chapman Families published in "The State" in Columbia, S.C. in 1929, and reference in D.A.R. Magazine of November 1913.

The will of Rev. Giles Chapman, Jr. is on file in Newberry District, S.C. recorded in will Book G, pages 254 to 257. It was proved April 19, 1819 and recorded Nov. 2, 1819. We learn by his will that he owned considerable property. In his will he mentions son Joseph, son Elijah, daughter Elizabeth Elmore, daughter Nancy Mills, two grandsons, Giles and Joseph Pitts, son John, son Giles, son William, son Daniel, son Samuel, son Lewis. The will mentions among other tracts, land in Edgefield District on Clouds Creek.

Geo. L. Summers in his book lists the inscriptions on the tombs in the Chapman-Summers Graveyard, also known as the old Tunker Church Cemetery, located about 4½ miles southwest of Newberry Court House, near the old Paysinger home, page 442. Noted among these are the following: "Rev. Giles Chapman, Born June 21, 1748, Died April 15, 1819." "Mary Summers Chapman, Wife of Rev. Giles Chapman, Born Oct. 10, 1758, Died Oct. 15, 1813." "Samuel Chapman, Esq., son of Rev. Giles Chapman and Mary, his wife, Died August 6, 1876 in his 80th year." "Elizabeth Worthington, Wife of Samuel Chapman, Esq., Born Aug. 10, 1801, Died June 10, 1880." "Elizabeth Chapman Elmore, Born Feb. 13, 1784, Died Feb. 22, 1839." "Thomas A. Elmore, Born April 20, 1776, Died July 15, 1875."

There is an old Bible in the Chapman family which was printed in 1613 in London by Robert Barker, "Printer to the Kings Most Excellent Majestie." One of the Chapman descendants, Mrs. Cora Lee C. Blease, Omaha, Nebraska, located this Bible recently and through her I secured a photographed copy of the family record it contains. This Bible is mentioned in Annals of Newberry by John Abney Chapman on page 598: "An Old Family Bible. The Bible belonging to the Chapman family, the family of the compiler of these annals, was printed in the year 1613 and is at the present time, 1892, two hundred and seventy-nine years old, and, as I have been informed is in a good state of preservation without a leaf missing (was then in the home of James K. P. Chapman, Appleton City, Missouri). It appears from the Family Record that it belonged in 1664 to Thomas Anderson of Bridlington in the East Riding of Yorkshire, England. Thomas Anderson died on the 5th of May, 1683, being the father of three daughters and one son. His daughter, Elizabeth, born 3rd of April 1673 was married to Marmaduke Jackson on the 14th of February 1707 at Bridlington. These seem to have had but two children, Nathaniole Jackson, born 20th of April 1708 and Sarah Jackson born 27 of Dec. 1710 (Note: This family record was made by the old calendar which showed Sarah Jackson as being born in the twelfth month. This would have been February according to the calendar in use at that time). Sarah Jackson became wife of Giles Chapman who was born Jan. 4, 1702. These were the parents of six children, Elizabeth, Samuel, Rachael, Joseph, Sarah, Giles - the eldest born Jan. 28, 1734, the youngest, Giles, June 21st, 1748. This Giles Chapman afterwards became the Rev. Giles Chapman. He married Mary Summers on the 14 of Sept. 1775. These were the parents of eleven children, the oldest of whom, Joseph, was born Sept. 23rd, 1776, and the youngest, Lewis, was born March 11, 1800. He died April 13, 1860. Lewis married Rhoda O'Neall, who was born April 29, 1802."

This old Bible contained the family record of Thomas Anderson, that of his daughter, Elizabeth, who married Marmaduke Jackson, that of their daughter, Sarah, who married Giles Chapman, Sr., and the family record of Giles Chapman, Jr. who married Mary Summers. In the foregoing account the names and birthdates of the children in each generation have been taken from this old Bible record, also all marriage and death dates mentioned except as otherwise stated. This Bible has been handed down to the youngest child in each generation as follows: Thomas Anderson to his daughter, Elizabeth, wife of Marmaduke Jackson; from her to her daughter, Sarah Jackson, wife of Giles Chapman, Sr.; from her to her son, Giles Chapman, Jr., the Reverend Giles; from him to his son, Lewis Chapman; from him to his son, James K. P. Chapman; from him to his daughter, Laura, who married Edward Bailey; from her to her son, Jay E. Bailey, who now lives at 1621 W 17th St., Pueblo, Colorado. The sister of Jay E. Bailey, Mrs. Ina (W. E.) Crumly is keeping this Bible for him. She resides in Butler, Missouri.

The records amply prove that Giles, Sr. and Giles, Jr. both lived and died in Newberry District, South Carolina, and that their families were well established there as to social position and worldly goods. However, in those times there were still adventurous souls who struck out to the frontiers of this land and it is because of them that this great country of ours was settled and civilized. Three sons of Giles, Jr. decided to go farther into the interior. They were Elijah, Joseph, and William who came to what is now Clarke County, Alabama, in 1809, bringing their families with them and being among the first settlers to this area. They came here during the time of the Indian wars when it was often necessary for the settlers to take refuge in the forts. They settled a few miles west of what is now Grove Hill and on the old Clarkesville Road. In this manuscript I will relate what I know of Elijah and Joseph and their descendants. Land records of Clarke County indicate that William Chapman and wife, Parthena, left Clarke County for Washington County. None of their descendants are known to me but I understand that some of them live in Choctaw County, Alabama. T. H. Ball in "Clarke and Its Surroundings" states that William had two daughters and one son, John Chapman, who resided in Choctaw County.

CHAPTER II

ELIJAH CHAPMAN AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Elijah Chapman was born in Newberry District, S.C. Jan. 19, 1779, died Clarke County, Alabama May 16, 1848; son of the Rev. Giles Chapman, Universalist minister and soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Mary Summers; grandson of Giles Chapman, Sr. and wife, Sarah Jackson, who came from Bridlington, Yorkshire, England to Frederick County, Virginia, in 1735. Elijah was married to Elizabeth Martin December 31, 1801, presumably in Newberry, South Carolina. Elizabeth Martin was born May 30, 1780, died Clarke County, Alabama, July 26, 1867. At the time they came to Alabama in 1809 they had four children. They brought with them Elizabeth's widowed mother, Mrs. Celia Martin, whose will was probated in Clarke County on February 8, 1839. The estate was divided between the following heirs: John Martin, Samuel Martin, Elijah Chapman in right of his wife, John Corley in right of his wife, and Josiah A. Mathews in right of his wife. I do not have the name of Elizabeth Martin Chapman's father but I believe it might have been Joshua Martin as she named her first born son Joshua Martin Chapman.

Elijah Chapman's homestead was located in that area west of Grove Hill toward Clarkesville in the vicinity of what is now the Barnett Institute School.

Elijah Chapman and his wife, Elizabeth Martin, had the following children:

I. Mary Chapman born May 3, 1803, married Lewis Cox July 24, 1822.
II. Joshua Martin Chapman born October 27, 1804, married Elizabeth Daniel August 13, 1824.
III. Giles Chapman, III born May 20, 1806, married Mrs. Achsah Pugh Robinson January 19, 1828.
IV. Celia Chapman born September 20, 1807, married Carney Daniel August 25, 1824.
V. David C. Chapman born March 11, 1810.
VI. Nancy Chapman born November 17, 1811, married Abner Cox November 16, 1828.
VII. John Chapman born October 20, 1813, married Alvirah Robinson Aug. 29, 1833.
VIII. Elizabeth Chapman born May 21, 1816, married Obadiah Smith Jan. 27, 1833.
IX. Ruth Chapman born June 3, 1818.
X. Elijah Chapman born June 15, 1820.
XI. Francis Posey (Frank) Chapman born May 3, 1826, married Mahalia Smith January 16, 1843.

The birthdates of Elijah and his wife, names and birthdates of his children, his marriage date, and the death dates of Elijah and Elizabeth Martin Chapman are taken from their Bible record which was owned by a descendant, Mrs. Litka McVay of Grove Hill, Alabama in 1929. Marriage records of the children were found in Clarke County marriage records.

Clarke and Its Surroundings by Rev. T. H. Ball has the following to say about Elijah Chapman: "Elijah Chapman, a brother of Joseph Chapman named above, and also of William Chapman, came to Clarke County after the War of 1812 (Family records give 1809). He had four sons, Joshua, Giles, John, and Frank; and four daughters, Polly (Mary), Celia, Nancy, and Elizabeth. Miss Polly became Mrs. Cox and went to Louisiana. Miss Celia became Mrs. Daniels, Miss Nancy became Mrs. Cox, marrying a cousin of her sister's husband. Both of these with their husbands removed to Louisiana where Mrs. Nancy Cox is now living. Miss Elizabeth became Mrs. Smith and went to Louisiana and afterwards to Texas. Mrs. Elijah Chapman . . . rode from Grove Hill to South Carolina alone on horseback in 1828 or 1829 to visit her relatives there whom she had not seen for many years. When near her home she met her brother on the ferry boat at night and they recognized each other after the changes of the many years." Family tradition has it that she did not make the trip alone but was accompanied by a young son.

Elijah Chapman's will was probated in Clarke County, Alabama, June 23, 1848. Records of Orphans Court Book F, pages 259-260. It reads in part: "Give and bequeath unto my wife Elizabeth Chapman all my estate both real and personal . . . with exception of my negro property. . . . I appoint my son, Giles Chapman, Executor of my last will and testament."

Elijah Chapman and his wife, Elizabeth, are buried in the old Pugh Cemetery located a short distance off the Coffeeville Highway to the left about four miles from Grove Hill. Their grave stones read: "Sacred to the memory of Elijah Chapman, born Jan. 19, 1779 in Newberry District, S.C., Moved to Ala. in 1809, died May 16, 1848. Elizabeth Chapman born May 30, 1780 in Newberry District, S.C. died July 26, 1867. Erected by E. P. Chapman, a Grandson."

THE BRANCH OF GILES CHAPMAN III (III)

Giles Chapman III, son of Elijah and Elizabeth Martin Chapman; grandson of Rev. Giles and Mary Summers Chapman; great-grandson of Giles, Sr. and Sarah Jackson Chapman, who came from Yorkshire, England, as mentioned in the foregoing, was born in Edgefield, South Carolina, May 20, 1806, died January 26, 1869 in Clarke County, Alabama, and was married January 19, 1828 to Mrs. Achsah Pugh Robinson at Grove Hill, Alabama.

Giles III was brought by his parents to what is now Clarke County, Alabama from South Carolina in 1809. He grew up on his father's farm near Grove Hill. When he married Achsah Pugh this united two of the oldest and most respected families of the area. There has continued to be intermarriage between the branches of the Pugh and Chapman families. If you write of one it is necessary to write of the other.

Achsah Pugh, shown as Axeth on most Chapman records, according to the Pugh family Bible published in 1818 and in possession of Isaac Pugh, Grove Hill, Alabama, was the daughter of a Revolutionary soldier, Elijah Pugh, and his wife, Ruth Julian (de St. Julien originally). She is listed as being born to them November 21, 1797. She was born in Wilkes County, Georgia, and was brought to Clarke County, Alabama, with her family in 1812. She was first married to Amos Robinson on May 10, 1814, Clarke County Marriage records. According to Pugh Bible Amos Robinson died November 14, 1823. Achsah had four Robinson children according to her Bible record owned by DeWitt Chapman of Grove Hill, Alabama. They are given as follows:

Alvirah Robinson born March 7, 1815, married John Chapman August 29, 1833, brother to Giles Chapman, III.
Matilda Robinson born July 15, 1817, married Daniel McLeod November 29, 1838.
Wesley Robinson born June 5, 1820, married Flora McLeod November 14, 1844.
Sarah (Sallie) Robinson born January 28, 1823, married Whitfield Summers, November 29, 1838.

For the ancestry of Achsah Pugh see the Pugh Family History section of this manuscript. Her Robinson children and their descendants are listed in that section.

The old home site of Giles and Achsah Chapman is a short distance off the St. Stephens Road about five miles from Grove Hill on property now owned by Ira T. McLeod. Giles Chapman accumulated quite a lot of property in his lifetime, enough to provide each of his children with a nice farm upon their marriage.

Giles and Achsah Chapman are buried in the Mathews Cemetery near their old home site. Their tombstone reads: "Giles Chapman, born in Edgefield, S.C. May 20, 1806, Died Jan. 26, 1869. Axeth Chapman, Wife of Giles Chapman, born in Wilkes Co., Ga. Sept. 21, 1797, Died Nov. 26, 1871." Note: The Pugh Bible gives her birthdate as November 21, 1797.

The following children were born to Giles and Achsah Pugh Chapman according to names and dates in their family Bible owned by DeWitt Chapman, Grove Hill, Alabama:

III A. Ruth P. Chapman, born October 7, 1828, married Malcolm McLeod.
III B. Elijah P. Chapman, born August 21, 1830, married Jane Pogue.

III C. Jesse P. Chapman born August 17, 1832, married Frances (Fannie) Fluker.
III D. Stephen P. Chapman, born October 3, 1835, married Martha Cornelia Pugh.
III E. Rebecca Chapman, born March 29, 1838, married William Bettis.

Quoting from Clarke and Its Surroundings by Rev. T. H. Ball: "Giles Chapman had three sons, Elijah P., Jesse P., and Stephen; and two daughters, Rebecca and Ruth. Miss Ruth became Mrs. McLeod, Miss Rebecca married William Bettis. Elijah P. Chapman married Miss Eliza Jane Pogue. They now reside at the Alston place near Grove Hill. Rev. Jesse P. Chapman married Miss Frances Fluker. He is now a Methodist minister and resides five miles west of Grove Hill. He has a son, Gross S. Chapman, a very promising young man, a medical student at Mobile. He has also two sons and four daughters."

The will of Giles Chapman III was probated in Clarke County, Alabama and is found on page 220, Probate Record N. In it he mentions "My beloved wife, Axeth Chapman, my children, Ruth P. McLeod, Elijah P. Chapman, Jesse P. Chapman, Stephen Chapman, and Rebecca Bettis. " Will dated January 7, 1868, and filed May 22, 1869.

Ruth Pugh Chapman, daughter of Giles III and Achsah Pugh Chapman, was born October 7, 1828, Grove Hill, Alabama, married Malcolm McLeod September 30, 1847. Malcolm McLeod was born April 3, 1824, died December 20, 1863 of wounds received at Missionary Ridge, Tennessee, during the Civil War. Ruth P. Chapman McLeod died September 4, 1900. Stephen P. Chapman (III D)

Stephen P. Chapman, son of Giles, III and Achsah Pugh Chapman, was born October 3, 1835 in Grove Hill, Alabama, died here January 12, 1904. He was married on January 27, 1858 to Martha Cornelia Pugh, born July 26, 1841, Grove Hill, Alabama, died here December 17, 1915.

Martha Cornelia Pugh was the daughter of Elijah Pugh, who was a nephew to Elijah Pugh, the Revolutionary soldier and father of Achsah Pugh. Her mother was Mary (Polly) Johnston whose mother was a member of the Macon family of Virginia who had a common ancestor with Martha, wife of George Washington. (See section of this manuscript on Pugh family, Macon and Johnston families for the ancestry of Martha Cornelia Pugh).

Stephen P. Chapman and his wife, Martha Cornelia Pugh, first settled near Winn, Alabama, on a plantation which they called "Sweetgum Thicket." When he left for the Civil War she left this plantation which she always found lonely and returned to the home of her parents near Grove Hill. After the War they built a two-story home two miles from Grove Hill on the old Coffeeville Road. Their late son, Belia G. Chapman, was the last of the family to occupy it. The family of Gary Wheat now own and occupy this home.

Stephen P. Chapman served four years in the Confederate army and attained the rank of lieutenant. He was taken prisoner and sent to Johnson Island, Ohio. I have a Bible he used while there. In it he wrote: "I was mustered the 18th of Oct. 1861 in the Confederate service and served the War through, a prisoner of war from the 13th of August 1864 to the 17th of June 1865. Signed-S. P. Chapman." His daughter, Alice Virginia Chapman, my maternal grandmother, has often told me of the privations her father suffered while in Yankee prison. He almost starved and was forced to eat rats in order to live. He developed a dysentery, so common with the soldiers of the Confederate Army, from which he never completely recovered. His days were shortened by this experience. It is said that after the War he never complained about the food put before him and he always left a clean plate. My grandmother remembered as a child the days of the Civil War and told of their fear of Yankee raids which caused them at one time to conceal all their valuables, including the best china, down in the woods. The slave cook worried for fear a cow would step in "Missy's big dish." I have in possession the letters Stephen P. Chapman wrote his wife during the Civil War. For a time he was stationed at Fort Morgan, near Mobile, where his wife often visited him. He later wrote from the battle fields of Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina, and from the prison on Johnson's Island. On page 402, Annals of Newberry, John A. Chapman, the author, has this to say of Stephen P. Chapman: "While in the winter quarters near Dalton, Georgia, I met and became acquainted with Lieut. Stephen P. Chapman of the 24th Ala. Regiment, a grandson of my father's brother, Elijah Chapman who married Miss Elizabeth Martin of Edgefield and moved to Clarke County, Alabama, while a young man. Lieutenant Chapman was taken prisoner near Dalton while in command of picket line, was carried to Johnson's Island prison where he remained a captive for ten months."

Lieutenant Stephen P. Chapman's war letters to his wife were seemingly all sent by hand, being brought by soldiers returning home on furlough. They indicated that he, being an officer, had to furnish his own provisions which were hard to come by. She was instructed to send him provisions from home including boxes of cured meats. She also sent his clothing including the boots which she had made.

After the war, Stephen P. Chapman settled down to a comfortable plantation life on his farm near Grove Hill where he reared four children. He was ahead of his times in that he did not depend upon cotton as most did but turned to stock raising. He raised horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs, and grew their feed. His place abounded in fruits and nuts of all kinds that would grow in this section.

Stephen P. and Martha Cornelia Pugh Chapman had the following children:

III D 1. Alice Virginia Chapman born January 20, 1861, married Wm. Morris Gordon.
III D 2. James Stephen Chapman born September 25, 1864, married Ada Ellen Allen.
III D 3. Robert Samuel Chapman born March 1867, did not marry.
III D 4. Belia Grayson Chapman born October 20, 1868, married Minnie May.

These names and dates are taken from their Bible record in possession of Mrs. W. H. Faile, Grove Hill, Alabama.

Stephen Chapman and his wife, Martha Cornelia, are buried in the family cemetery on old Coffeeville Road located on the estate of their son, James S. Chapman. Their tombstones read: "S. P. Chapman, Born Oct. 3, 1835, Died Jan. 12, 1904." "Martha Cornelia Pugh, Wife of Steven (Stephen) P. Chapman, July 26, 1841 - Dec. 17, 1915."

Stephen P. Chapman served as County Commissioner for Clarke County for a long time.

III D 1. Alice Virginia Chapman, born to Stephen P. and Martha Cornelia Pugh Chapman on January 20, 1861 in Clarke County, Alabama, died here March 16, 1942, married William Morris Gordon, January 22, 1879, Grove Hill, Alabama.

William Morris Gordon was born October 19, 1856, Grove Hill, died here March 30, 1938. He was the son of Dr. Nathaniel Charles Gordon, born 1829, came to Clarke County, Alabama, from Dalton, Georgia, and died in Grove Hill, Alabama about 1865, and his wife, Elizabeth Pogue to whom he was married January 1, 1853. Elizabeth Pogue was the daughter of David Pogue and his wife, Elizabeth Bostick. (See Pogue family section of this manuscript.) Elizabeth Pogue was born near Grove Hill, January 26, 1831 and died in Flomaton, Alabama about 1910 where she is buried. Dr. Gordon is buried along with members of the Pogue family in Spinks Graveyard near Grove Hill just off Asbury Road.

William Morris Gordon and his wife, Alice Virginia Chapman, lived five miles from Grove Hill on the Coffeeville Highway in a large two-story farmhouse which was built by her paternal uncle, Jesse P. Chapman. This house is no longer standing. Wm. M. Gordon was a substantial farmer and leader in his community. Alice Virginia Chapman Gordon was a remarkable woman. She always said she would never grow old, and indeed up until her death at the age of eighty-one she was as active physically and mentally as a person half her age, being always of a bright and inquiring mind, given to much reading, and being modern in thought.

All of the Chapmans down through the generation of Alice Virginia Chapman were members of the Universalist Church. The old church where they worshipped in Grove Hill is no longer in existence.

William Morris Gordon and Alice Virginia Chapman had the following children:

a. Stephen Chapman Gordon born March 22, 1880, Grove Hill, Alabama, a successful merchant and business man, died April 14, 1962, married Myrtle Clyde Cobb, December 14, 1905, daughter of Marion and Margaret Jane Bettis Cobb. Myrtle Cobb Gordon died April 28, 1962. Stephen C. and Myrtle Cobb Gordon had the following children:

   Inez Gordon, born October 28, 1907, married Ellis B. Calhoun June 6, 1933, residents of Birmingham, Alabama, where he teaches.

William Edgar Gordon born February 9, 1910, merchant in Grove Hill, married on November 22, 1950 to Mrs. Vivian Haskew Finley, a former teacher. She was first married to Dewey Finley by whom she had one child, Jimmie Finley, born November 3, 1941. Wm. E. and Vivian Haskew Gordon have three children: Wm. Stephen Gordon born June 4, 1952; Susan Clyde Gordon born November 21, 1953; John Cobb Gordon born October 26, 1957.

b. Carrie Cornelia Gordon born October 24, 1882, married on September 3, 1902 to Dr. John Talbert Pugh, born October 16, 1869, died December 29, 1948, a successful physician in Clarke County for nearly fifty years. Dr. John Talbert Pugh was the son of Jesse Pickens Pugh and his wife, Melissa Bettis. (See section of this manuscript on the Pugh family for the ancestry of Dr. John Talbert Pugh.)

Dr. J. T. Pugh and his wife, Carrie Cornelia Gordon, had the following children:
Lillian Pugh, born August 19, 1903, a former teacher, married to Walter Wild Andrews September 3, 1924. They live in Jackson, Alabama where they operate a hardware and giftware business.

Minnie May Pugh, the compiler of this history, retired social worker, born October 29, 1904.

c. Mary Emma Gordon, born August 19, 1890, married William Monroe Hearn February 25, 1912. Wm. Monroe Hearn, a merchant of Grove Hill, died December 27, 1934. He was born December 10, 1881. They had one child:

William Gordon Hearn born February 1, 1913, owner and operator of a cold storage plant in Jackson, Alabama, married first to Louise Mathews, daughter of David C. and Emma Bumpers Mathews, by whom he had two children: Wm. Monroe Hearn born October 27, 1938, married Marian Tompkins and has a child, Deborah Lee Hearn; Rebecca Hearn born August 14, 1945. William Gordon Hearn was married second to Kate Nicholson by whom he has a son, Gordon Nicholson Hearn born July 5, 1962.

III D 2. James Stephen Chapman, son of Stephen P. and Martha Cornelia Pugh Chapman was born September 25, 1864 near Grove Hill, Alabama, and died there August 6, 1934. He was married January 13, 1886 to Ada Ellen Allen, who was born March 13, 1886 and died February 19, 1938. She was the daughter of George and Mary Ellen Robinson Allen, and the granddaughter of Thomas and Sarah Robinson. James S. Chapman was a successful farmer, cattleman, and business man, and he served Clarke County as Commissioner. He lived about four miles west of Grove Hill on the old Coffeeville Road in the home of his maternal grandfather, Elijah Pugh. James S. Chapman and his wife are buried in the family cemetery on this plantation. I often visited in this home when a child and recall the old slave kitchen which stood in the backyard, not then in use but a busy place prior to 1865 when Elijah Pugh's family occupied the place. This old kitchen had two huge fireplaces built for cooking on the open fire with the use of cranes and portable ovens. I am told that rows of cabins for the slaves were located back of this kitchen.

James S. Chapman and his wife, Ada Ellen Allen, had the following children:

a. Allen Bertram Chapman, died as a child October 3, 1889.

The following story was told of him by his comrades: During the campaign against the Northern forces the Confederate soldiers often became extremely hungry as food was scarce and supply lines were poor. They often had to take food where they could find it in order to live. On one occasion the company of which Mr. Matthew Cox was a member, appropriated a pig they found running in the woods, butchered it and proceeded to roast it for food. Mr. Cox, although suffering from hunger, refused to eat the meat as he considered it stolen. However, as he breathed the rich aroma of roasting pork, the pangs of hunger overcame him and he broke down and said, "Boys, I'll take a little of the gravy." Matthew Cox died November 26, 1897. Effie Cox died May 17, 1914. They are buried in old Union Cemetery in Clarke County.

PART II

PUGH FAMILY HISTORY

PART II - PUGH FAMILY HISTORY

CHAPTER I

THE COLONISTS

The Pugh family is of Welsh origin. The name was originally Ap Hugh, the "Ap" denoting "son of Hugh." Tradition has it that the Pughs are descendants of Hugh, a younger son of Sir Owen Glendower, who was the last Welsh prince. He was a patriot who spent his life trying to free Wales from England.

It is my intention here to write what I have learned of the ancestry of the Pugh family of Clarke County, Alabama. My family had a record back to our ancestor, Jesse Pugh, and his wife, Elizabeth Stewart, who moved from Guilford County, North Carolina, to Wilkes County, Georgia, with their six children, in 1773. I have attempted to trace from Jesse back to the emigrant from Wales. I found there were several by the name of Pugh who came from County Merioneth, Wales, to Pennsylvania in the 17th century, practically all of them being of the Quaker faith. Our family is found in the old Quaker records prior to the Revolution. Having borne arms in the Revolution they were no longer eligible for membership in this strict sect. Aside from the Pughs who settled in Pennsylvania I find in the Compendium of American Genealogy among immigrants, "Francis Pugh, son of a Welsh squire of Glendower Hall, Carnaven, Wales, to Virginia in 1666 with brothers, Thomas and Daniel, settled at Jerico Manor, Nansemond County, 20 miles from Norfolk, near Suffolk."

It is my belief that the Pughs of Clarke County, Alabama, descended from the Quaker settlers of Pennsylvania. The line of migration was from Pennsylvania to Virginia, and thence to North Carolina following the old Indian trail. Three genealogists to my knowledge have traced our family back to the immigrant. These genealogists are now likely all dead. I have the information they gave to others but do not have the documentary evidence they found. Since all three came to the same conclusion I assume there are or have been documents to substantiate this information.

JAMES PUGH AND SON, THOMAS.

Mrs. Howard M. Nelson, 2101 Lauderdale Road, Louisville, Kentucky, who is a descendant of the family of Stewarts from which Jesse Pugh's wife, Elizabeth, came, received the following information on our family of Pughs from Mr. Alexander Du Bin of Philadelphia who made a study of Americans of royal ancestry and Magna Charta descent:

"James Pugh came to Pennsylvania from Wales and settled in the Welsh Tract, was a planter and a member of the Society of Friends. He moved from Radnor to Chester Meeting in 1714, settled at Uwchlan, acquired a large landed estate and died in 1724. He married 1692 Joan Price, daughter of David Price, a Friend from Wales to Radnor Meeting 1690, and wife whom he married in Wales, Joan Awbrey born 1640, died 1699, daughter of Thomas Awbrey of royal ancestry. (The royal descent is from Charlemagne and Magna Charta Barons down to Gwenllian ap Griffith who married Jenkin Awbrey. Their son, Hopkins Awbrey had a son, William Awbrey; the latter's son, Richard Awbrey; his son Thomas Awbrey whose daughter, Joan Awbrey married in Wales in 1665, David Price, who came to Pennsylvania in 1690 with his family)."

"Thomas Pugh, son of the above James Pugh, born 1703, married Elizabeth Pugh born 1709, moved to North Carolina and settled at Sandy Creek. They had seven children of whom a son was Jesse Pugh."

"Jesse Pugh, born 1732, Guilford County, N.C. removed to Georgia (Washington County). (Note: Washington is a part of the original Wilkes County). He married about 1759 Elizabeth Stewart. In the Georgia Roster of the Revolution, Bounty Surveys by Lucian Lamar Knight, the two sons of the first James Pugh, namely James and Jesse, had land in Washington County, Georgia, as of July 17, 1784. They and their brother, John Pugh, were on the certified list of Georgia Revolutionary Troops."

Mrs. Howard Nelson also furnished this information which she secured from Miss Anna R. Stewart of Tempe, Arizona, a retired teacher of the University of Arizona:

"Jesse Pugh married Elizabeth Stewart, daughter of Robert and Martha Richardson Stewart in Randolph County, North Carolina. Jesse was a son of Thomas Pugh and brother of Mary Pugh who married Herman Husband. (I think Jesse was a brother of James Pugh who was a Regulator and was captured and hanged by order of Governor Tryon. He was quite a hero and he is buried at Guilford). Jesse had a son, Elijah, who served in the Revolution from Wilkes County, Ga. and belonged to a settlement of Quakers."

The Stewart family, including Mr. E. A. Stewart, founder of the Carnation Milk Company, compiled a book on Stewarts and Allied Families, hence Miss Anna R. Stewart's information concerning Jesse Pugh who married Elizabeth Stewart.

Rebecca Downey White of Ann Arbor, Michigan, who made a study of Quaker families gave the following information to Mary Helen Pemberton,

150 W. High Street, West Milton, Ohio. "Thomas Pugh was the son of James Pugh who emigrated to Uwchlan Twp. Chester County, Pa., in 1682 with his brother, David, and settled on French Creek at a place called 'Pughtown' not far from Pottstown. James Pugh died in 1724. I have no record of the wife of Thomas Pugh but he is said to have married out of Friends (married someone who was not a Quaker) in 1729 and to have been re-instated in 1756 and his certificate sent to Cane Creek, N.C. Meeting. His children are given as Jesse, Enoch, Mary, John, James. Jesse married Elizabeth Stewart."

Thus it seems that the immigrant ancestor of the Pughs of Clarke County was James Pugh who married Joan Price, the line of descent being through their son, Thomas, who married Elizabeth, and who were the parents of Jesse who married Elizabeth Stewart.

In Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Genealogy, p. 416, we find Jesse Pugh being received by request into the Cane Creek Quaker Monthly Meeting in Orange County, North Carolina, on February 2, 1760. Others listed as being received there are: Thomas on July 3, 1756, Enoch on the same date as Jesse, Mary on April 3, 1762, and John on July 3, 1762. We assume that this is Thomas Pugh and his children who were there with him at the time. These records show that Mary married Herman Husband. He organized the famous Regulator movement in North Carolina which was the beginning of the Revolution. However, many of those who participated in it were hanged by the British Governor, among them being one James Pugh. I am told their names are listed on a bronze plaque which hangs in the Post Office of Greensboro, North Carolina.

JESSE PUGH

Jesse Pugh, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Pugh, grandson of James and Joan Price Pugh, born about 1732, married about 1759 in North Carolina Elizabeth Stewart, daughter of Robert and Martha Richardson Stewart and granddaughter of Alexander Stewart. (See Stewart Family section of this manuscript). Jesse Pugh, his wife, Elizabeth, and their six children moved from Guilford County, North Carolina in 1773 to Wilkes County, Georgia. Elizabeth's parents moved also at that time to this area of Georgia. Both families received some of what was called the Ceded Lands. This area of Wilkes, which was a large county, later divided into several counties, was opened to settlers June 1, 1773 through a treaty with the Creek and Cherokee Indians. Wilkes County Office of the Probate Judge: "Grant to Jesse Pugh, North Carolina, Guilford County, a wife and six children, five sons and one daughter, from 16 to 2 years, 100 acres northside of Little River below MacLemurray's old place, including a spring." A pamphlet entitled "The Earliest Settlements of Wilkes County" by Alex M. Hitz of the Surveyor General Department, Atlanta, states that

"warrants for survey in the Ceded Lands were issued in 1773 and thereafter . . . Jesse Pugh of North Carolina receiving 100 acres on Little River 9/30/1773 and Robert Stewart receiving 200 acres on Ogechee River 12/7/1773."

According to information handed down in my family and to land records at Washington, Georgia, Jesse Pugh had the following children:

Annie Pugh, married A Gilburger, descendants live in Tennessee.
Elijah Pugh, born 1760, married Ruth de St. Julien, her name anglicized to Julian.
Robert Pugh, married Alcey Kinman.
Alexander Pugh, left Wilkes County, Georgia by March 29, 1791 for Preble County, Ohio. Later moved to Indianapolis, Indiana.
Jehu Pugh, settled on the Chattahoochee River. m Eliz. Kinman
William Pugh, left Georgia and went to Ohio.
John Pugh, left Georgia and went to Ohio.

Jesse Pugh continued to live in the area of Wilkes County, Georgia, and increased his land holdings. Hinshaw's Genealogy mentions Jesse as being received in Wrightsboro Quaker Monthly Meeting in Georgia December 5, 1789, from a certificate from Cane Creek Monthly Meeting of North Carolina. Jesse's son, Elijah, was received in the Wrightsboro Meeting August 2, 1788. It is my information that Tories and Indians drove out the settlers in Wrightsboro during the Revolution, including Jesse Pugh's father-in-law, Robert Stewart, who went to South Carolina and fought in the Revolution. It is believed that Jesse and Elizabeth Stewart Pugh lived out their lives on their plantation on Little River in North East Georgia and that they are buried there. Jesse was dead by 1811. We find a record in Wilkes County, Georgia, dated November 11, 1811, where John Pugh of County of Randolph, later Baldwin, and Elijah Pugh of Bigby Territory, Washington County, Georgia, appoint William Pugh, Wilkes County, to sell all that tract of land granted to Jesse Pugh on Reedy Creek, also 100 acres of another survey on Reedy Creek, Deed Book 1811, page 389.

Jesse Pugh was a soldier of the American Revolution, serving in the Georgia Militia in a patriot band led by Colonel Elijah Clarke. His son, Elijah, then a young boy, also served in this band as perhaps did Jesse's son, Robert. Reference to this service is found on page 621 of Smith's History of Georgia, also Richmond County Record Book of Historical Collections of the Georgia Chapters of National D.A.R., page 310.

In this manuscript I shall write of two sons of Jesse and Elizabeth Stewart Pugh, namely Elijah and Robert, and their descendants. They came from Georgia to what is now Clarke County, Alabama in 1812.

CHAPTER II

ELIJAH PUGH AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Elijah Pugh, son of Jesse and Elizabeth Stewart Pugh, grandson of Thomas and Elizabeth Pugh, great-grandson of James and Joan Price Pugh, was born in 1760 in Orange or Guilford County, North Carolina. He moved with his parents to Wilkes County, Georgia in 1773 where he grew up on his father's plantation on Little River. When he was eighteen years old, or in the latter part of 1778 he became a soldier of the Revolution, joining with his father the patriot band led by Col. Elijah Clarke and fighting throughout the last three years of the war. He is listed as a private in the Georgia Militia. He saw much hard service. His first experience on the battlefield was at Kettle Creek in his home county. These patriot bands made Georgia and South Carolina unsafe for the British and kept alive the spirit of freedom. In the fighting around Augusta a metallic flask was the means of saving the life of Elijah. It was struck by a bullet and deeply dented while hanging on his chest. While it was made of pewter it was sufficient to protect his body from the force of a round lead bullet fired from a flint and steel rifle. (Taken from Biography of Elijah Pugh published in the Clarke County Democrat, Grove Hill, Alabama, June 16, 1927.)

After the War of the Revolution Elijah was married in 1784 to Ruth Julian a descendant of the French Huguenot family de St. Julien. She was born September 27, 1763, died in Grove Hill, Alabama in 1848. (See section of this manuscript on the St. Julien family).

According to deeds on record in Wilkes County, Georgia, Elijah was still there February 1803, but by November 1811 he was of Bigby Territory, Washington County, Georgia. We later find him serving as Justice of the Peace in Jackson County, Georgia. I have the handbook he used while in this office. Clarke and Its Surroundings, a history written in 1877 by Rev. T. H. Ball states: "In 1811 there came from Georgia a soldier of the Revolution whose ancestors came from that noted principality of Wales and were fellow-countrymen of Christmas Evans. He had at least four brothers. Three of these, John, William, and Alexander went to Ohio and afterwards Alexander went to Indiana and settled near Indianapolis where his descendants are still supposed to be living."

According to family tradition, Elijah Pugh and family came to what is now Clarke County, Alabama in 1812. Elijah's son, Isaac, who had lived here a year, returned to Georgia and brought his parents, brothers and sisters back with him. It is said that they were afraid to move in covered wagons as the Indians watched the wagon trails. They used instead a transporting device called rolling hogshead to convey their household goods so they could go through the little used trails. They settled four miles west of Grove Hill on a spot now located on the Coffeeville Highway. Elijah's great-grandson, Isaac Pugh, only recently moved from this spot. The family cemetery is there. Elijah's brother, Robert, and his family also moved here at that time. Elijah lived the rest of his life here. A few moments before he died on June 23, 1824 he requested his brother, Alexander, who was on a visit from Ohio, to sing a favorite song. As the song ended this pioneer and patriot passed away.

According to the Pugh family Bible record owned by Isaac Pugh, Grove Hill, Alabama, published in 1818 by J. Holbrook, Elijah and Ruth Julian Pugh had the following children:

I. Isaac Pugh, born March 9, 1785, married Hannah Baskin.
II. Rezin Pugh born June 2, 1787, married Elizabeth Jackson.
III. Miriam Pugh born March 7, 1790, married Isaac Jackson.
IV. Jesse Pugh born February 12, 1795, married Elizabeth (Betsy) Robinson.
V. Achsah Pugh born November 21, 1797, married (1) Amos Robinson (2) Giles Chapman.
VI. Alviah Pugh born February 7, 1801, married Joseph Hall. Lived Eutaw, Alabama.
VII. Stephen Pugh born January 10, 1805, died unmarried.

Elijah and Ruth Julian Pugh are buried in the Pugh family cemetery. Their grave stones read: "Elijah Pugh 1760-1824, Emigrated from North Carolina to Georgia 1773, From Georgia to Alabama 1812. A Soldier of the Revolution." "Ruth Julian Pugh, 1763-1848." The D.A.R. has placed a marker on the grave of Elijah Pugh.

Documentary proof of the service of Elijah Pugh in the American Revolution: Georgia Roster of the Revolution by Lucien Lamar Knight, page 203. In Bounty Surveys, Le Conte Lists, Elijah Pugh 287½ acres of land in Washington County, Georgia, warrant 2167, May 17, 1787, Land given for services in the Revolution; Smith's History of Georgia, page 621, states that "Jesse and Elijah Pugh were soldiers in Georgia."

Quoting from Ball's history: "Elijah Pugh had four sons who came also from Georgia to Clarke County; Isaac, Rezin, Jesse, and Stephen. He had three daughters, Miriam who married Isaac Jackson, Achsah who married Amos Robinson and after his death, Giles Chapman, and Alvira who married Joseph Hall. Elijah died June, 1824, being sixty-three years of age. . . . Rezin Pugh also married in Georgia."

THE BRANCH OF ISAAC PUGH (I)

Isaac Pugh, son of Elijah and Ruth Julian Pugh, was born in Wilkes County, Georgia, March 9, 1785, being the first child of his parents. He grew up in Wilkes and Washington County, Georgia. As a young man he came in 1810 to the Indian wilds of the Choctaw Purchase, a part of the Mississippi Territory. He located in what is now central Clarke County, Alabama. Isaac lived for a year with the Choctaw Indians and became a friend of Pushmattaha, then a young man and not yet chief. Isaac was a gun maker. He made and presented to Pushmattaha a rifle which was inlaid in silver with figures of deer, bear, etc. There are none of the guns Isaac made still in existence but S. P. Chapman who lives near Grove Hill has one which was made by Isaac's brother, Stephen Pugh, which fits the description of the ones Isaac made. After living with the Choctaws for a year, Isaac returned to his home in Georgia and remained there until 1812 when he came back here bringing with him his wife, Hannah Baskin, and his parents, brothers, and sisters. They all settled a few miles west of what is now Grove Hill.

Isaac was active in the Indian wars of this territory. It was necessary in those pioneer days for him to make trips to Pensacola, Florida, for supplies. Soon after his return here from Georgia he and some more settlers under Col. Caller were engaged in a fight with a party of Creeks at Burnt Corn. The Creeks retaliated by the massacre of Fort Mims and the attack on Fort Sinquefield. During the Creek War the Pughs placed their families in Fort Madison, beyond Old Suggsville. Isaac Pugh was selected by Pushmattaha as assistant in training 3000 Choctaws to fight the Creeks. Isaac was a member of the Choctaw tribe by the Indian ceremony of mixing blood. After this territory was made safe for the settlers he enlarged his holdings and settled down to farming and gun making.

Isaac Pugh was married December 5, 1809 to Hannah Baskin, born October 23, 1793. She was the daughter of William and Isabell Cowen Baskin. (See section of this manuscript on the Baskin family). Their old home site is on the Coffeeville Highway about four miles west of Grove Hill.

Isaac and Hannah Baskin Pugh had the following children:

I A. William Baskin Pugh born August 24, 1810, married Margaret Skinner.

I E. Stephen Pugh born August 16, 1826, married Jane Gilmore.
I F. Jesse Pickens Pugh born April 17, 1829, married Melissa Bettis.

Clarke and Its Surroundings by Ball has this to say of Isaac Pugh: "Isaac Pugh was married to Hannah Baskin in 1809 and with his young wife he came in 1810, before his father, to the Indian wilds. He died in 1839. He had five sons, William, E. Stewart, John M., Stephen, and J. Pickens, and one daughter, Rebecca. Miss Rebecca married John Dunbar."

Isaac Pugh and Hannah Baskin, his wife, are buried in the Pugh cemetery on Coffeeville Road near Grove Hill. Their grave stones read: "Isaac Pugh, Mar. 9, 1785, Sept. 8, 1839." "Hannah Baskin Pugh, Oct. 23, 1793, June 23, 1861." Isaac Pugh made a visit to Georgia to attend to some business of the family estate there. Upon his return he developed typhoid fever from which he died.

THE BRANCH OF REZIN PUGH (II)

Rezin Pugh was the son of Elijah Pugh, Revolutionary soldier, and his wife Ruth de St. Julien (anglicized to Julian) who came to Clarke County, Alabama in 1812; grandson of Jesse and Elizabeth Stewart Pugh who moved from Guilford County, North Carolina, to Wilkes County, Georgia in 1773; great-grandson of Thomas and Elizabeth Pugh who came from Pennsylvania to Orange County, North Carolina about 1756; great-great-grandson of James and Joan Price Pugh, James emigrating from Wales to Pennsylvania in 1682. Rezin Pugh was born June 2, 1787 in Wilkes County, Georgia. He was married in Jackson County, Georgia, to Elizabeth Jackson. They moved from Georgia to Clarke County, Alabama in 1812 and settled on a place which is located on the old Coffeeville Road near the present home of S. P. Chapman. They moved to Tallahatta Springs, Alabama, in their later years and are supposedly buried there.

Rezin Pugh, his name taken from the Bible, as most Pugh names were, died in the latter part of 1871. His estate was settled in Clarke County in early 1872. Probate Minutes N, page 207, gives a list of his heirs. He seems to have had twelve children as follows:

STEPHEN PUGH, SON OF ELIJAH AND RUTH JULIAN PUGH.

Stephen Pugh was born January 10, 1805, in Wilkes County, Georgia, being the youngest child of Revolutionary soldier, Elijah Pugh, and his wife, Ruth de St. Julien (Julian). Stephen was never married. He spent his life in the service of others and was greatly beloved by all his nieces and nephews. He moved to Clarke County, Alabama from Georgia in 1812. Stephen Pugh was a splendid practical nurse. He was much in demand to attend the sick. It was his practice to make medicines from plants. If he had had the opportunity I feel sure he would have studied medicine but that was impossible when living on a frontier as he did.

T. H. Ball in "Clarke and Its Surroundings" states: "Stephen Pugh, the fourth son of Elijah Pugh, never married. He learned the trade of a gunsmith. He is yet living about four miles from Grove Hill, now in 1877, seventy-one years of age. He is still active, attends to his plantation, and is an intelligent worthy citizen." One of the guns that Stephen Pugh made is still in existence. It is owned by his great-great nephew, Stephen Pugh (S. P.) Chapman of Grove Hill, Alabama.

Stephen Pugh died September 6, 1883. He is buried in the Pugh Cemetery on the Pickens Pugh estate near Grove Hill.

The name of Stephen in the Pugh and Chapman families has come down from the de St. Julien, anglicized to Julian, family. Mary Bullock who married Rene de St. Julien in Bermuda in 1700 was thought to be the daughter of Stephen Bullock. She named a son Stephen Julian. Ruth Julian who married Elijah Pugh named her son Stephen Pugh. Stephen Pugh's sister, Achsah Pugh, who married Giles Chapman, named a son Stephen Pugh Chapman. Stephen Pugh Chapman had two grandsons by the name of Stephen, they being Stephen Chapman Gordon and Stephen Pugh (S.P.) Chapman. Stephen C. Gordon has a grandson, William Stephen Gordon. The name of Stephen appears in the McLeod family among those who are descendants of Ruth Chapman, daughter of Achsah Pugh and Giles Chapman, who married Malcolm McLeod. Isaac Pugh, son of Elijah and Ruth Julian Pugh, named a son Stephen Pugh. This Stephen Pugh, who married Jane Gilmore, has a grandson, Robert Stephen (Bob) Pugh who has a son, Stephen Pugh.

CHAPTER III

ROBERT PUGH AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Robert Pugh was a son of Jesse and Elizabeth Stewart Pugh who moved from Guilford County, North Carolina in 1773 to Wilkes County, Georgia where they settled on Little River; a grandson of Thomas and Elizabeth Pugh who moved from Pennsylvania to Orange County, North Carolina about 1756; a great-grandson of James and Joan Price Pugh who emigrated from Wales to Pennsylvania, James coming in 1682. A history of these forebears of Robert Pugh is given in the foregoing record. Robert Pugh was likely born in Orange or Guilford County, North Carolina. He grew up in Wilkes County, Georgia, and was living there during the Revolution. He was married to Alcey Kinman in Georgia.

Robert and Alcey Kinman Pugh moved to what is now Clarke County, Alabama in 1812. They were accompanied here by his brother, Elijah Pugh, Revolutionary soldier, and his family as brought out in the foregoing record under "Elijah Pugh and His Descendants." The Robert Pugh family settled near what is now Grove Hill on what is now known as the Warren Harrison estate. Robert and Alcey Pugh are buried in unmarked graves there.

Robert and Alcey Kinman Pugh had the following children:

I. Elizabeth Pugh who married David Smith, December 12, 1814. They moved to Texas.

II. Elijah Pugh born March 1, 1800, married Mary (Polly) Johnston, December 22, 1825.

III. James Kinman Pugh, killed in a horse race as a young man in 1831.

IV. Nancy Pugh who married Gideon A. Macon, October 20, 1820.

Gideon A. Macon's estate was probated in Clarke County, Alabama on October 3, 1831. Nancy Pugh Macon's estate was probated here on November 19, 1846. Heirs of this couple are listed as Elizabeth who married Newett Cloyde, James Kinman Macon, Robert P. Macon, Martha Macon, Gideon A. Macon, and Jane Macon. James Kinman Macon and Robert P. Macon were residing in Texas at the time of their mother's death.

V. Olive Pugh who married Jesse Johnson or Johnston. They moved to Texas.

VI. Martha Pugh who married D. Parham Jones. They lived in Peach Tree, Alabama, Wilcox County, where they have many descendants living today.

VII. Meredith T. Pugh who married Fannie A. Beckham, November 16, 1850.

THE BRANCH OF ELIJAH PUGH, son of Robert Pugh. (II)

Elijah Pugh, born March 1, 1800 in Wilkes County, Georgia, moved with his parents, Robert and Alcey Kinman Pugh to Clarke County, Alabama in 1812. He was married to Mary (Polly) Johnston December 22, 1825 in Clarke County, Alabama. She was the daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Macon Johnston, a descendant of the French Huguenot family of Macon of colonial Virginia and a cousin of Martha, wife of George Washington. (See section of this manuscript on Allied Families, Macon and Johnston Families). Mary Johnston was born July 9, 1808.

Elijah and Mary Johnston Pugh lived on what is now known as the James S. Chapman estate about four miles west of Grove Hill on the old Coffeeville Road. The house last occupied by their grandson, James S. Chapman, was their home. Elijah Pugh was said to have been the wealthiest of the Pughs. He owned a large plantation and a number of slaves. During the Civil War he would carry his slaves to the salt works below Jackson, Alabama, to cook the salt from the salt springs there as this was the only source of salt. It is said that he lost several of his best slaves who contracted typhoid fever at the salt wells. Rows of slave cabins stood back of the home of Elijah Pugh. I remember well the old slave kitchen in the backyard with its hugh fireplaces, used for cooking, long in disuse in my time, and now demolished. I treasure a brass candlestick which was used by Mary (Polly) Johnston Pugh to light her way around the slave quarters at night as shelooked after the sick and any who needed her help.

Elijah and Mary Johnston Pugh are buried in their family cemetery on their old place near Grove Hill. The dates given for them are taken from their tombstones and from their Bible record owned by S. MACON, MATHEWS, AND JOHNSTON LINEAGE

GIDEON MACON I - Married Martha Mathews

Gideon Macon was one of the first FrenchHuguenots to come to America. He came to the Virginia colony before 1682. It seems that he had first gone to England from France and thence to the American colonies. His mother, Ann Macon, St. Botalf, Algate, London, made a will 7th Sept. 1699, proved 3rd Aug. 1700; bequeathed as follows: "To Mr. Gideon Macon now living in Virginia and to his wife, to each of them a ring of 20 S apiece." From this will there seems to be the following heirs: Gideon, who emigrated to Virginia in his mother's lifetime, Mary Elvinor, spinster living in London in 1700; Sarah who married Freckelton in London. The will leaves a silver porringer to "Ann Macon, daughter of Gideon Macon, the elder. Martha, my six silver spoons."

Gideon Macon's home was located on the Pamunkey River in Virginia and was called "Mt. Prospect." He was married before 1682 to Martha Mathews, daughter of the Royal Governor of the Virginia Colony, Samuel Mathews. Samuel Mathews emigrated to Virginia in the ship Southampton in 1622 and settled on the south side of the James River in the Indian territory of the Tappahannas opposite to Jamestown. He was at different times counsellor, commander of the fort at Old Point, and Governor, dying in office in 1659 or 1660. He was married twice, the first wife being the daughter of Sir Thomas Hinton who bore him one son, Samuel Mathews, Jr., who died about the same time as his father leaving an only son, John. Gov. Samuel Mathews married a second wife, Frances, who had first married Capt. Nathaniel West, second Abraham Piersey, and third, Governor Mathews. The records mention Gov. Mathews' orphans without giving their names and it is believed that Martha who married Gideon Macon, Sr. was a child by this second wife, Frances. There was a son, Francis, who at his death left an only son, Baldwin. Capt. Francis Mathews was Justice of York County and died Feb. 16, 1674 or 1675.

Martha Mathews lived in New Kent County, Virginia and was a communicant of St. Peters Church there. This old church is still in use. Gideon Macon, Sr. represented New Kent County in the colonial government at Williamsburg, being member of the House of Burgesses, according to the records on file there. He served from 1699 to 1702, dying in office. His name is on a plaque on one of the pews in Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, as denotes that he served as vestryman. I understand he is honored by having his name on a bronze tablet in the old Huguenot Church in Charleston, S.C. as being a descendant of the protestants of France called Huguenots.

Gideon Macon's daughter, Martha, married Orlando Jones, son of Rev. Roland Jones, rector of Old Bruton Parish Church in Williamsburg for fourteen years. Orlando Jones and Martha Macon had two children, a son, Lane, and a daughter, Frances, who married Col. John Dandridge of New Kent County, Va. Their daughter, Martha Dandridge, became the wife of Genl. George Washington. Both Martha Macon and her husband, Orlando Jones, are interred beneath the floor of Bruton Parish Church. Their slabs are inside the chancel railing of this church. Their home in Williamsburg has been reconstructed.

Gideon Macon and Martha Mathews had the following children:

Gideon Macon II born June 20, 1682, married Priscilla Jones.
Ann Macon born Dec. 15, 1694, baptised Feb. 2, 1695 St. Peters Parish.

Martha Macon, Mary Macon, wife Priscilla. He was a very large land and slave holder. Lands were located on Tarr River, Shocke Creek, and Hobquarter Creek. GORDON AND POGUE

The Gordons are one of the oldest and most prominent clans of Scotland. The ancient Gordons were in great favor with the kings of Scotland. Sir Adam Gordon I distinguished himself by ridding Scotland of fierce wild boars and for that reason King Malcolm had him to carry on his Coat of Arms three boars heads. Many of the Gordons bore titles.

Dr. Nathaniel Charles Gordon came to Clarke County, Ala. in the 1850's from Dalton, Georgia. His father, whose name I do not know, was married twice and was a large landowner and slave holder at Dalton. The mother of Dr. Gordon was a Wilson. In addition to Dr. Nathaniel Charles there were sons, Walter and William Winston, and a daughter, Eliza, who married Dr. Hanson and lived near Waco, Texas. The second wife had a daughter, Josephine, who married a Hanson and lived at Tyler, Texas.

Dr. Gordon was born in 1829, supposedly in Dalton, Ga. He died in Grove Hill, Ala. about 1865. He is buried in Old Spinks Graveyard just off the Asbury Road near Grove Hill. His grave is located just outside of the brick wall which surrounds the graves of the Pogue family. Dr. Gordon was married to Elizabeth Pogue Jan. 1, 1853 in Grove Hill. They lived for a time at what was then called Salem, now Scyrene, in the house now occupied by Mr. Cary Garrick. Dr. Gordon practiced medicine, later moving to Grove Hill where he died as a comparatively young man from pneumonia. His wife and children then made their home with her family at the Pogue place near Grove Hill.

I have not traced the ancestry of Dr. Gordon. Mr. Maurice Kirby Gordon, lawyer of Madisonville, Ky. has furnished me with the following information which might be our family of Gordons:

John Gordon I - Immigrant to Virginia, probably Spottsylvania County.
His sons:

John Gordon II, married Elizabeth Grayson.
Charles Gordon, killed at Kings Mountain.
James Gordon removed to Tenn. and thence to Florida.
William Gordon who left Culpepper County, Va. after 1786 for Nashville, Tenn. Died there.
Alexander Gordon went to N.C. and thence to Georgia.
Thomas Gordon went to N.C. and thence to Georgia.

Dr. Nathaniel Charles Gordon and Elizabeth Pogue had the following children:

Wm. Morris Gordon, born Oct. 19, 1856, married Alice Virginia Chapman.
Emma Gordon, married David O'Gwynn. Buried Flomaton, Ala. Dr. J. Coleman O'Gwynn of Mobile is one of her descendants.
Joe, Gordon, lived and died in El Campo, Texas. No living descendants.
Elizabeth (Lizzie) Gordon, died as a young girl.

William Morris and Alice Virginia Chapman had the following children:

Stephen C. Gordon who married Myrtle Clyde Cobb. Their children: Inez who married Ellis B. Calhoun, and William Edgar who married Mrs. Vivian Haskew Finley.

Carrie Cornelia Gordon who married Dr. John Talbert Pugh. Their children: Lillian who married Walter Wild Andrews, and Minnie May Pugh, writer of this history.

Mary Emma Gordon who married Wm. Monroe Hearn. One child: Wm. Gordon Hearn.

The details regarding the descendants of William Morris and Alice Virginia Chapman Gordon are in the Chapman section of this manuscript.

Elizabeth Pogue who married Dr. Nathaniel Charles Gordon was born Jan. 26, 1831, Grove Hill, Ala. She was the daughter of David Pogue, born Aug. 16, 1786, died Aug. 15, 1837, and his wife, Elizabeth Bostick, born Dec. 17, 1802, probably in South Carolina, died Grove Hill, July 22, 1894. David Pogue was said to be Irish. He and Elizabeth Bostick were married in Clarke County, Ala., Nov. 7, 1816. She had a Quaker background. She was traveling through this area in a covered wagon with her family, going west, when she met and married David Pogue. She was only fourteen years old. Her family continued on to the western frontier and there has never been any mention that she ever heard from them again. She and her husband owned one of the finest plantations in the Grove Hill area, to this date still called "The Pogue Place" but owned for many years by Scotch Lumber Co. The old home, a two story frame building, burned several years ago. William Morris Gordon grew up on this plantation from the age of ten when his father, Dr. Gordon died, and Mrs. Gordon and her four children went back there to live with her mother and brother, David Pogue, who helped her to rear her children.

David and Elizabeth Bostick Pogue had the following children according to their family Bible record which I have:

Julia Ann Pogue, born July 25, 1818, married Harvey Saint.
Pinckney H. Pogue born Sept. 28, 1820, died April 15, 1843, married Sarah Portis.

Martha Pogue born Dec. 15, 1822, married Peter DuBose.
Joseph Bostick Pogue born Nov. 29, 1825, married Mary Hall.
Levi Spinks Pogue born Dec. 26, 1828, married Catherine Mitchell.
Sarah Elizabeth Pogue born Jan. 26, 1831, married Dr. N. C. Gordon.
David Pogue born Nov. 30, 1832, married (1) Mittie Bryant (2) Vernon Drinkard.
Ann Mariah Pogue born Dec. 31, 1824, married George Carleton.
Carolina A. Pogue born Oct. 17, 1834, died Sept. 11, 1854.
Eliza Jane Pogue born July 24, 1836, married Elijah P. Chapman. Her descendants covered in the Chapman section of this manuscript.

David and Elizabeth Bostick Pogue are buried in Spinks Graveyard near Grove Hill. There are no markers but the Pogue graves are enclosed by a brick wall. My grandfather, Wm. Morris Gordon, told me that the following are buried in this enclosure: David and Elizabeth Pogue, their son, David Pogue, and their granddaughter, Elizabeth (Lizzie) Gordon.

BASKIN

Mr. Raymond M. Bell of Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa. has written a history of the Baskin family, copy of which he has furnished me. The line of Hannah Baskin who married Isaac Pugh has been established as follows:

Mr. Raymond Bell states that the Baskins were Irish Presbyterians. The family of William and Isabell Cowen Baskin were living in Jackson County, Ga. at the time Isaac Pugh married Hannah Baskin.

STUART - STEWART

The following is some information which has been sent me by a relative on the Stewart line of Elizabeth Stewart who married Jesse Pugh: Copied from Royal Families of England, Scotland, and Wales by Sir Bernard Burke:

1. Sir John Stuart - Perthshire, Scotland
2. Walter Stuart - Perthshire, Scotland
3. Robert Stuart, born 1655, Perthshire, Scotland, died 1714, Edinburg, Scotland. He was a Covenanter, fled to Ireland during the reign of James II. He settled at Londonderry. After peace was restored he returned to Edinburg where he died. He married Janette Forsythe. After his death Janette Forsythe Stuart came to America. Children: John, Robert, Julia Ann, Samuel, and Alexander.

4. Alexander Stuart born 1680, Edinburg, Scotland, died 1714, married 1704 to Mary Bailey, daughter of Joel and Ann Short Bailey of Chester County, Pa. (See Bailey Book from Broneham, Wiltshire, England).

Children:
1. Jane, born 1709, married 1730 Josiah Taylor.
2. Robert, born 1710, married 1732 Martha Richardson.
3. Ann, born 1712, married 1734 Henry Marsh.
4. Mary, born 1714, married Joseph Taylor.

5. Robert Stewart, born Nov. 25, 1710, Chester Co., Pa. died 1783, married 1732 Martha Richardson, daughter of Isaac and Catherine Gandy Richardson from England.

Children: John, Alexander, Jehu, Katherine, Robert, Gravenor, Amos, Henry, Elizabeth who married Jesse Pugh, Isaac, Rachael, and Hannah.

Records of Wilkes County, Ga.
Record of Wills, 1792-1801, page 54: Stewart, Martha. "To each of my children, Elizabeth, Jehu, Isaac, Catherine, Gravenor, Rachael and Hannah, five shillings each. To granddaughter, Martha Brooks, feather bed when she is 18. To son, Amos, 150 acres of land whereon my son Gravenor now lives, cattle, etc. Amos to be the sole Executor. March 27, 1791." Probated Sept. 20, 1793. Jesse Pugh was one of the witnesses.

Letter:
Mr. Geo. Edson, Clathe, Kansas, edits Stewart Clan Magazine, wrote me under date Jan. 20, 1959: "I have your inquiry of Dec. 27 about Elizabeth Stewart, wife of Jesse Pugh. You are correctly informed. Elizabeth was a daughter of Robert and Martha Richardson Stewart, and Robert was a son of Alexander Stewart of Kennett Township, Chester Co., Pa. This family has been rather well looked up and considerable information about these Stewarts has been printed in the Stewart Clan Magazine in years past. A book was printed about them by one of the Stuarts who heads the Carnation Milk Co. in Seattle, a copy of which I have and which gives credit to the Stewart Clan Magazine for having established the line. Robert Stewart, although born a Quaker, took some part in the Revolution while a refugee in South Carolina. The Quaker settlement near Washington, Wilkes Co., Ga. was raided by Indians and Tories during the Revolutionary War and the settlers who escaped massacre took refuge in South Carolina until hostilities ceased. Their having taken part in the war resulted in Robert's sons quitting the Quaker connection. Their grandfather, Alexander, was not originally a Quaker, but he married a Quaker girl in Pennsylvania. He was a bound boy, imported from Scotland and sold into bondage to pay his passage. His father's name is unknown but the presumption is that this family of Stewarts lost its possessions during some trouble in the reigns of King James VII and King William. Yours truly, Signed: George Edson."

JULIAN, Originally de ST. JULIEN

Ruth Julian, born Sept. 27, 1763, married Elijah Pugh in 1784, descended from the French Huguenot family de St. Julien. Although I have not connected her by records with the following account of the family I have reason to believe that she descended from this line, especially since noting the similiarity of the names of her family with the names shown in this account:

Taken from "Genealogy and History," HEM #2140, Issue #15: Rene St. Julien, refugee to Bohemia Manor, Cecil Co., Md. Then to Frederick Co., Va. He wed Mary Bullock about 1700. Issue:

1. Stephen Julien
2. George Julien
3. John Julien
4. Peter Julien
5. Isaac Julien
6. Rene Julien, Jr.
   3 daughters

Rebecca Downey White of Ann Arbor, Michigan, who made a study of Quaker families gives the following information:

THE JULIAN FAMILY OF BOHEMIA MANOR 1720-1737. CECIL COUNTY, MARYLAND. Rene Julian lived in Bohemia Manor 1720-1737 as shown by land transactions at the courthouse at Elkton, Vol. 7, p. 414, May 1, 1720, deed mentions Stephen and Peter as sons of Rene Julien. Rene St. Julien (anglicized to Julian) born in France 1660ca, was a Huguenot who fought at the Battle of the Boyne in Ireland in 1690 and came to America about 1700 having stopped at the Island of Bermuda en route by tradition where he married Mary Bullock. He became a soldier as a youth and was in the army of James II in the English Revolution of 1688 during which time he was a Roman Catholic. From reasons of preference he is said to have deserted the standard of King William along with many others. For his services to King William he was given a grant of land on the Mississippi River and he used to tell his family that they need never consider themselves settled until they were established there. But his children when grown were not inclined to go to what was then a savage region, and persuaded him to buy land. He went first to the shores of the Carolinas and, losing two sons there, he decided to remove to a more healthy region on the Eastern shore of Chesapeake Bay. There was a colony of French families on the Santee River in South Carolina which began to migrate about 1712 due to the unhealthy climate. This family may have been among them.

The record of the birth of his son, Isaac, in 1716 which appears in the Register of St. Ann's Parish at Annapolis which is now in the Hall of Records there.

Rene and Mary Bullock Julien had seven sons and three daughters who grew up in Bohemia Manor. By 1737 when Rene Julien assigned his lease in Bohemia Manor to Henry McCoy he was a very old man. It is assumed that this was the date of his going to Winchester, Frederick Co., Va. with five of his sons, three of whom purchased land from Lord Fairfax though not until 1750. The record of the aforementioned son Isaac's marriage there in 1741 shows that the family was in Frederick Co., Va. then. The father, Rene Julien, was living still in 1744. It is assumed that he and his wife lie buried in Old Opueqon Cemetery near Winchester, Va. land for which was given to Wm. Hoge into whose family the son, Isaac, married. Shortly after Braddocks defeat in 1755 the five sons who went with him to Va. from Bohemia Manor in Cecil Co., Md. fled through terror of the Indians with their families to Orange County, N.C. which later became Randolph and Guilford Co. where they took land grants. . . . Two sons did not go from Bohemia Manor to Va. with their father---Stephen and Jacob. They removed to Prince George County, Md. (Frederick Co. 1748) where the first record of them appears in 1743.

Rene Julian, in America, became a slave holder and a Presbyterian, and hated the Quakers for their testimony against war and slavery. He was large and tall, said to have red hair, and to have been a perverse man of fiery disposition. . . . May Bullock Julien, wife of Rene St. Julien, is said to have been a great lady. She was of Spanish descent. Evidence seems to point to her being a daughter of Capt. Stephen Bullock who came from a Quaker family. The names of their sons were: Stephen, Peter, George, John, Isaac, Jacob, Rene. The names of the known daughter was Mary who married Sept. 19, 1734 John Thompson by the records of St. Stephen's Parish in Cecil Co., Md.

I. Stephen married Allatha, widow of Samuel Bouchelle. She was buried April 6, 1743 in Prince George Co., Md. according to records of All Saints Episcopal Church. Will proved Jan. 29, 1743, Prince Geo. Co., Md., adm. June 12, 1747. Second marriage July 14, 1743 Ann Hedges, widow of Wm. Hedges, Episcopal Parish records named 2 unmarried daughters and minor son, Joseph, and unborn son (Wm.); sister of Charles Hedges (1673-1743) original will Chester Co., Pa. who was son of Wm. died 1778. Paid taxes on 258 acres called "Hedge-Hogg" 1753-1773, Frederick Co., Md. Served 1757-8 French and Indian War under Capt. Ransberger, was a corporal in the Militia of Cecil Co., Md., 1740-8 under Capt. Peter Bayard. Stephen I was appointed constable for Monocacy March 10, 1749 by first court of Frederick Co., Md.

Children: Names of his daughters not know.
(1) Stephen married 1774ca Elizabeth Horine, widow of Tabias Horine. Stephen died May 9, 1814. Had son Joseph.

(2) Isaac born 1741 Cecil Co. or Prince George Co., Md., died 1839, Miami Co., Ohio where went with son, John, 1812-13. Revolutionary Soldier enlisted from Washington Co., Pa. where was a taxpayer 1781, married Susannah Hedges, 9 children, only 2 known, John and Stephen born Frederick Co., Md., died Miami County, Ohio.

(3) John, Sr. born 1753 Frederick Co., Md. died Aug. 4, 1830 Fairfield Co., Ohio. Married June 14, 1770 Elizabeth Butler daughter of Peter and Mary Ogle Butler, Frederick County, Md. Moved to Fairfield County, Ohio.

II. Isaac born December 30, 1716, record of St. Ann's Parish at Annapolis, Md., died July 8, 1778 Randolph Co., N.C. of rattle snake bite. Grant from Lord Fairfax in Frederick So., Va. for 414 acres Jan. 8, 1752 adjacent to Peter Julien's land. Grant Orange Co., N.C. Dec. 29, 1762 for 280 acres adjacent to John, his brother, whose land was inherited upon John's death by John's son, George born 1752. Married Sept. 10, 1741 Frederick Co., Va. Barbara White daughter of Dr. Robert White (son of Dr. John White) born 1694 Paisley, Scotland, died 1755 Winchester, Va. Surgion British Navy. Dr. Robt. White married 1720 in Delaware to Margaret Hoge, daughter of Wm. Hoge born 1660 Musselborough, Scotland, died 1749 Winchester, Va. Wm. Hoge married 1695 Barbara Hume born 1667 Paisley, Scotland, whose parents died en route to America 1682 on the "Caledonia." The Hoges, Whites, and Rene and Mary Bullock Julien lie buried in old Opequon Cemetery at Winchester, Va. (No markers left.)

Isaac and Barbara White Julien had 7 children born to them at Winchester, Va.:

Mary born 1744 died May 10, 1843, Randolph Co., N.C., married 1762ca Nehemiah Odell, Regulator.
Margaret married Alred.
Catherine married Long.
Rebecca born Mar. 17, 1748, died August 23, 1828, Knox County, Tenn. Married May 1771 Guilford County, N.C. Samuel Frazier.
Rene born 1756 married Catherine Alred Macon, Randolph County, N.C., then to Knox County, Tenn.
Abigail married Samuel Trogden, Randolph Co., N.C.
Isaac II born 1751 died Feb. 17, 1831, Greensboro, Ind. Married 1774ca Sarah Lang.

Mary Helen Pemberton, 150 W. High St., Milton, Ohio gave me the following information which was supplied her by Rebecca Downey White: Ruth Julian who married Elijah Pugh was probably the daughter of Peter Julien, Sr. (son of Rene and Mary Bullock Julien), and sister of Peter, Jr. who married Ruth Pugh in N.C. about 1771. Ruth Pugh was supposedly the oldest child of Azariah and Hannah Beals Pugh. Thus it seems her brother Peter, Jr. married into the Azariah Pugh family while Ruth Julien herself married into the Thomas Pugh family when she married Elijah, son of Jesse and Elizabeth Stewart Pugh. Peter Julien, Sr. miller of Guilford County, N.C. and Ann Brothers, his wife, sold 247 acres, Alamance Co., N.C. Peter Julien, Sr. and son, Peter, Jr., were Regulators from Orange Co., N.C. who went to S.C. shortly after.

Genealogy and History, Washington, D.C., Sept. 15, 1945, page 34:

"Peter Julian, Sr. (born Bohemia Manor, Cecil Co., Md., probably C1714) was one of the 7 sons of Rene St. Julien (Huguenot to America c1700; from N.C. to Cecil Co., Md.; then 1737 to Frederick Co., Va. where he died c1744). Peter, Sr. with wife, Mary, bought 389 acres in Frederick Co., Va. from Lord Fairfax in 1753. Peter, Sr. with 4 brothers with families fled to Randolph Co., N.C. at time of Indian raids c1758. Both Peter, Sr. and son, Peter, Jr. were Regulators in Orange Co., N.C. and shortly afterwards went to Newberry Co., S.C. where Peter, Sr. died 1810.

A land transaction in 1773, Guilford Courthouse, N.C. by Peter Julian names his wife as Ann and in 1817 Jesse Julian got some land from Ann Brothers and heirs. Suggests second marriage by Peter, Sr."

In order to complete the line of Ruth Julien who married Elijah Pugh it would require the checking of records in Wilkes, Washington, and Jackson County, Ga., and that part of S.C. which borders on northeast Ga. where the Pughs lived.

It is my thinking that she might have been a great-grandchild of Rene and Mary Bullock St. Julien.

THE BETTIS FAMILY

Melissa Bettis born June 11, 1839 in Grove Hill, Ala. and died there July 22, 1907, was married to Jesse Pickens Pugh Jan. 6, 1858. She was the daughter of Judge Zachariah Lawrence Bettis and his wife, Elizabeth Talbert, daughter of John Holloway Talbert and his wife, Mary Susan Sutton.

JUDGE ZACHARIAH LAWRENCE BETTIS

Judge Zack L. Bettis was born June 12, 1816 in Edgefield, S.C. and was brought by his parents, Moody and Sophia Swearingen (originally Van Swearingen) to Clarke County, Ala. in 1818. He was elected Probate Judge of Clarke County in 1856 and served at least two terms. His home was near Grove Hill a short distance off Asbury Road. Judge Bettis was married Jan. 19, 1837 to Elizabeth Talbert, born June 8, 1818 in Edgefield, S.C. Judge Bettis died Sept. 4, 1879. His wife died May 20, 1883. MOODY BETTIS

Moody Bettis, father of Judge Zachariah L. Bettis was born July 19, 1793 probably in Edgefield District, S.C. He was married Feb. 23, 1815 to Sophia Swearingen, born Aug. 27, 1793, daughter of Frederick Swearingen, a Revolutionary soldier, and his wife, Sarah Bettis. It is believed that Moody Bettis and his wife were first cousins. He came from South Carolina in 1818 to Clarke County, Ala. along with Stephen and Mathew Bettis who were brothers and who had a sister, Sarah, who married Frederick Swearingen. Although no document has been found to show

Moody's parentage he was a son of either Matthew or Stephen. Mrs. Adele Cobb Kerrigan, a descendant who has written a history of the Bettis family, credits Moody as being a son of Stephen by his first wife who was believed to have been Delilah Burt, daughter of Moody and Fanny Burt. The records of Edgefield show a Mrs. Delilah Bettis. After coming to Clarke County Moody settled in the community known as Salem, now Scyrene. He lived in the home which is now occupied by Mr. Cary Garrick. He and his family are buried in the Salem Cemetery. Clarke County records show Moody as being overseer of the poor in his district. He died in 1865. His wife died Dec. 31, 1861. According to the Bible record of Moody Bettis owned by Linier Clarke of Mobile, Ala., he and his wife had the following children:

Judge Zachariah L. born June 12, 1816 - Married Elizabeth Talbert.

Matthew born May 26, 1833 - died Mar. 7, 1864.
Jesse R. born Aug. 15, 1835.

STEPHEN BETTIS
Stephen Bettis, thought to be the father of Moody Bettis came from Edgefield, S.C. to Clarke County, Ala. in 1818 and settled at Hamilton Bluff, a point on the Alabama River between Peach Tree and Claiborne. We know from his Bible record owned by Mrs. Eudell Coleman of Whatley, Ala. that he was married three times. His first wife believed to be the mother of Moody Bettis is thought to have been Delilah Burt as stated above. After her death c1797 Stephen was married in 1798 to Mary Lott, daughter of Jesse and Sarah Lott. He had three children by Mary Lott as follows:

Elijah born Sept. 4, 1798, married Sophia Mitchell. No known descendants.
Elisha Lott born July 11, 1800, died Jan. 11, 1852, married Mary Hearin. Has many descendants in Clarke County, Ala.
Sarah born July 20, 1802, died April 8, 1804.

Stephen's wife, Mary Lott, died Oct. 20, 1804. He then married another Mary believed by Bettis family historian Mrs. Adelle Kerrigan to be Mary Porter; however, there is a record in Clarke County Probate Office where Benjamin Darby deeded a slave to his daughter, Mary Bettis. Stephen's wife, Mary, was the only Mary Bettis known to be living here at the time. By this last wife Stephen had the following children:

Eliza Ann born Oct. 10, 1809 - Married Duncan McCaskey. Has descendants.
Margaret born Sept. 10, 1811, died Mar. 2, 1818
John W. born March 25, 1813, died May 22, 1827.

Willis J. born March 11, 1815, died May 30, 1827.
Benjamin B. born Mar. 7, 1817, died May 14, 1827.
Jesse C. born Oct. 15, 1820, died Aug. 18, 1823.
Martha E. born Oct. 10, 1822, married Bates. Moved to Tyler, Texas.
Stephen F. born Mar. 13, 1825, died as a child.

Stephen Bettis died July 22, 1824. His last wife died Oct. 15, 1844. Both of their estate settlements naming heirs are in the Probate records of Clarke County, Ala.

As stated above Mrs. Adele Cobb Kerrigan has traced the Bettis family. Her history of this family is called "The Bettes-England to America," a copy of which is on file in the library in Grove Hill, Ala. The remainder of this sketch is taken from her book.

JOHN BETTIS
According to Mrs. Kerrigan, Stephen Bettis is the son of John Bettis and his wife, Mary Wilson, who was the daughter of John and Mary Wilson of Cumberland Co., N.C. and granddaughter of Mark Russell. They lived in Edgecombe Co., N.C., later emigrating to Chesterfield, S.C. John was a Revolutionary soldier. Genealogist Leonardo Andrea, 4204 Devine St., Columbia, S.C. wrote Mrs. Kerrigan under date of September 26, 1951, and stated that Major White certified that John Bettis served for ten months in the So. Carolina Brigade, dated 1790. John Bettis died in Edgefield County, S.C. and was buried in Old Horne Creek Baptist Churchyard near Edgefield and near his home on the Ridge. A Revolutionary marker has been placed for him in Bettis Square, Ebernezer Cemetery, Trenton, S.C. In Cumberland, according to Court minutes, he was Judge of Pleas and Quarter Sessions.

John Bettis and Mary Wilson had the following children:

Stephen who married (1) Delilah Burt (2) Mary Lott (3) Mary Darby. Came to Clarke County, Ala. in 1818.
Jane married Jesse Lott, Jr.
John.
Sarah who married Frederick Swearingen. Her daughter, Sophia, married Moody Bettis who came to Clarke County, Ala. in 1818.
Margaret (Peggy).
Matthew who married two Winnefred Lotts, who were cousins. Came to Clarke County, Ala. in 1818.
Mary who married Isaac Kirkland.
Francis.

After the death of John Bettis his widow, Mary Wilson Bettis, married Russel Robertson and had five more children. After the death of Russell Robinson she married Edward Vann, Sr. in 1799. She died in 1827 in Amit County, Miss. where she had gone to visit her two daughters, Margaret Bettis Swearingen and Lucretia Robertson Cotton. She is buried in an unmarked grave at Old Zion Hill Baptist Churchyard.

FRANCIS BETTIS

John Bettis was the son of Francis Bettis who was the head of the Cumberland Co., N.C. and So. Carolina Bettis families, lived in Edgecombe and Cumberland Counties, N.C., likely born in Albermarle. In 1753 he received a land grant on Rock Fish Creek, Cumberland Co., Deed Book 3, p. 289. He married Mary Evans, daughter of Chas. Evans, Sr. who named her in his will in 1757, N.C. Historical Register Vol. F, p. 205. Will proved 1759. Francis Bettis lived on the south side of Tar River between the important towns of Tarboro and Rock Mount, Edgecombe Co. Francis and May had these children: Elijah, Elisha, Francis, Irwin, John who married Mary Evans, and is the ancestor of the Bettis' who came to Clarke Co., Ala., Mary and Janet.

Mary Evans Bettis died in 1774 between Jan. 15 when she signed her dower and June 14 when her son, Francis, had a deed resigned to himself as Francis, Jr. Francis, Sr. was alive in 1794. He evidently went to live with his son, Francis, in S.C. for he deeded land from Old Cheraw, S.C.

JOHN BETTIS, SR.

Francis Bettis is believed to be the son of John Bettis, Sr. who by 1700 was living with his family in Edenton Dist., old Albemarle Co., N.C. In 1753 Francis Bettis and his own immediate family settled in Cumberland Co., N.C. on Rock Fish Creek. Indications connect this family with the English Hampshire branch of the Withenden family. There is a tradition that the Bettis family were originally from Henrico Co., Va. and were called "tuckahoes" a term applied to early settlers of Henrico County, Va.

SWEARINGEN, Originally Van Swearingen

The first of this family in America was Garrett Van Swearingen who came in 1656. He married a French Huguenot, Barbara de Barette in 1659. He lived in Delaware and then moved to Maryland and was a Commissioner to Holland. Garrett came to America as an agent for the Dutch East India Company and arrived at what is now New Castle on the Delaware. He decided to stay and later became Commissioner to Holland. When England took the New Netherlands from the Dutch, Garrett broke his sword over his knee and moved to Maryland with his wife and two children: Zacharius and Elizabeth. He was Catholic. He arrived at St. Mary's City in 1664 and owned what was called the Smith House, really Maryland's first State House. He opposed removal of the Capital to Annapolis.

After Garrett's wife, Barbara, died he married Mary Smith. The Swearingens are among the founders of Maryland. Three governors of Maryland have come from the Swearingen descendants.

Garrett and Barbara de Barette's son, Thomas, was born in Maryland and married Jane Hyde. They had four sons, Thomas, Jr., Van., Samuel, and John.

Samuel married Eliza Farmer Feb. 14, 1715 in St. Barnabas Church, Queen Anne's Parish, Prince George County, Maryland. After 1727, Samuel went to North Carolina and settled in Edgecomb Co. on the south side of Tar River between Tarboro and Rocky Mount.

Samuel had three sons, Samuel, Jr., Thomas, Dr. Vann, Sam., Jr. married Mary Bolling. In 1765-66 Samuel's family began to move to Anson County, N.C. In Colonial Records Samuel's sons are named as Regulators, organized 1768, an organization that defied the Crown.

The sons of Samuel, Jr. are Eli, Vann, Henry, John, Frederick, Thomas, Bolling, and Richard Cheek. (All of the above taken from "Bettis-England to America" by Adele Cobb Kerrigan.

Frederick Swearingen married Sarah Bettis, daughter of John and Mary Wilson Bettis. They were the parents of Sophia Swearingen who married Moody Bettis and who was the grandmother of Melissa Bettis who married J. Pickens Pugh. Frederick Swearingen was a soldier of the Revolution, serving from Edgefield, S.C. He served in the militia under Captain Jones and attained the rank of Major. An Act of the General Assembly of South Carolina passed March 16, 1783 permitted to commissioners of the Treasury to pay Frederick Swearingen 24 pounds sterling for militia duty as a private. Records of receipts from Frederick Swearingen for provisions and services. Service Duty 1781-82. Provisions in 1782.

According to the Moody Bettis Bible owned by Linier Clarke of Mobile, Frederick Swearingen died May 29, 1822. Sarah Swearingen died Sept. 27, 1817. They are believed to have died in Dallas County, Alabama.

TALBERT

Elizabeth Talbert, daughter of John Holloway Talbert and his wife, Mary Susan Sutton, was born June 8, 1818, married Jan. 19, 1837 to Zachariah L. Bettis. They were the parents of Melissa Bettis, born June 11, 1839, who married J. Pickens Pugh. They were the parents of Dr. John Talbert Pugh.

In "Bettes-England to America," a history of the Bettes or Bettis family and allied families by Mrs. Adele Cobb Kerrigan has the following to say about the Talbert line:

Talbert is an ancient family name, originally Talbot. They are one of the few families of English aristocracy that trace their descent and name from the time of the Norman conquerors. A Talbot was a running hound in the hybrid Norman-French tongue and was the ancient badge and symbol of the family. The Talbot's bred this now extinct hound. The family begins with Richard Talbot of the reign of Henry II, a king serving family in the English peerage. The original head of our branch became a Scotch covenanter and sought refuge in Ireland, Holland, and America. Elizabeth Talbert who married Zack Bettis was the daughter of John Holloway Talbert and his wife Mary Susan Sutton, born Edgefield, S.C. John Holloway Talbert was the son of Joseph Talbert of Edgefield. John Holloway Talbert was born Jan. 16, 1768, married July 25, 1799 Mary Susan Sutton, born Dec. 26, 1783, died Aug. 7, 1823. John H. Talbert died June 9, 1834. Their children were John, Thomas, William, Matthew, Willis, Joseph, Mary Ann, Susan, Sarah Elizabeth.
